ON THE COVER: All-America Chuck Dicus of Arkansas failed to impress Razorback coaches at three positions before establishing himself as one of the school's greatest wide receivers. Entering the 1970 season, the 6-0, 170-pound senior has caught 98 passes for 1,542 yards and 14 touchdowns for the Porkers. "Dependable, is the best way to describe Chuck," says Arkansas coach Frank Broyles. "He has good football sense and runs our type of offense to perfection." Dicus is a B student in marketing and is active in campus activities. The Garland, Tex., native's hobbies are golf and fishing, the latter often with roommate Bill Montgomery, the Razorback quarterback.

It's To Be "Year Of The Quarterback" As 41 "Budget" Games Lengthen Slate

By JOHN MOONEY

Sports Editor, The Salt Lake City Tribune
President, Football Writers' Association of America

From its beginnings, football has stressed the idea of "paying the price for athletic greatness." But as the intercollegiate game moved into its second century in 1969, the "cost factor" took new meaning.

The soaring costs of all college expenditures has become a matter of concern for presidents, athletic directors, trustees or regents and certainly the political watchdogs.

Athletics, naturally, have come in for budget studies, and football, which once carried the entire athletic program, hasn't escaped the critics.

Two post-season developments left little doubt as to the seriousness of the money concern.

Notre Dame, which hadn't played a post-season bowl game in 45 years, agreed to play No. 1 Texas in the Cotton Bowl.

AND NOTRE DAME MADE NO PHONY EXCUSES about the boys and the fans deserving the Dallas invitation. Notre Dame admitted the prospect of $300,000 would salve a lot of budget strain in the athletic department.

Then, in a surprisingly easy maneuver, the NCAA convention voted to allow the playing of an 11th game, and, again, the logic was strictly financially based.

Although the rush developed slowly, by press time some 55 per cent of the 118 major colleges—and a handful of others—had added "budget-rescue" 11th games, representing at least a 41-game lengthening of the 1970 season.

The arguments against platoon football's expense seem to have been quashed. There was no more than token disapproval of the platoons at the NCAA meeting.

John Mooney became one of the travelingest presidents in the history of the Football Writers' Association of America last season when he represented the group at various functions connected with the celebration of college football's centennial year.

The Salt Lake City Tribune sports boss attended fetes at New York City, Washington D.C., and Rutgers University and was a guest at the Texas-Arkansas and Notre Dame-Texas contests.

As a student at the University of Iowa, Mooney turned to journalism after failing at all sports except golf and tennis, "which I didn't try," he appends.

AND THE TALK of a championship playoff series to crown a national football champion never gets beyond the talking stage. There is too much loyalty to the bowl people to schedule a post-season tournament which might take luster away from the established bowls.

In an effort to cut some of the expenses, limits were placed on visitations for potential athletes, but the proposal to limit the number of campus visitations by star athletes didn't get sufficient support. Critics of the recruiting limitations contended the regulations would be too difficult to enforce.

So College Football wound up its Centennial celebration with Texas voted the No. 1 team in the nation, with dissenting votes from the East, where Penn State also was unbeaten.

TEXAS WON IT THE HARD WAY, completing a "fourth and three" pass in the fourth quarter to edge upset-minded Arkansas at Fayetteville. Richard M. Nixon, the president of the United States, qualified as the No. 1 football fan by attending the game and presenting a national championship trophy to the Longhorns.

Texas lived up to its rating by whipping Notre Dame in another come-from-behind game in the Cotton Bowl, while Penn State's defense beat Missouri in the Orange Bowl.

Penn State carries a 30-game string into the 1970 season while Texas has won 20 straight.

AMID ALL THE PROMOTIONS and drama of the Centennial, one game stood out—the Texas-Arkansas contest for the national title.

And in the days that followed this titanic struggle, one young lad won his way into the hearts of the nation's fans.

Freddie Steinmark, a regular in the Texas defensive secondary, was operated on a few days after the triumph over Arkansas and the game youngster's battle, his philosophy in time of trouble, made him the man of the year in football.

STEVE OWENS, THE HARD-WORKING

Oklahoma rusher, won the Heisman award and Michigan's Bo Schembechler was voted coach of the year.

It was Bo's Michigan club which pulled the major upset of 1969 in beating No. 1 and defending champion Ohio State, 24-12.

That was the game that opened the gates for Texas and Penn State to surge into national championship prestige.

Texas and Penn State intend to carry on into 1970, in their hassle for top-of-the-heap recognition. But don't overlook the University of Southern California, and certainly not Ohio State or Michigan, in the early morning line of favorites.

If there's a trademark for 1970, it must be The Year of the Quarterback.

THE CALIBER OF QUARTERBACKING is so outstanding that this year it will be a struggle picking the all-conference, let alone the All-America, signal callers and passers.

Just for openers, how about Archie Manning of Mississippi, or Jim Plunkett of Stanford, or Rex Kern of Ohio State, or Joe Theismann of Notre Dame or Lynn Dickey of Kansas State?

But what about Bill Montgomery of Arkansas, Chuck Hixson of Southern Methodist, or Jimmy Jones of Southern Cal or Dennis Dummit of UCLA?

And this doesn't include such quarterbacks as John Reaves of Florida, Scott Hunter of Alabama, Pat Sullivan of Auburn, Bobby Scott of Tennessee, Mike McNallen of Navy, Joe Spagnola of Arizona State, Jack Mildren of Oklahoma, Gary Mullins of Houston, Tom Blanchard of Oregon or Steve Endicott of Oregon State.

BECAUSE SO MANY TEAMS RETURN THEIR QUARTERBACKS, there aren't stick-out favorites in many conferences.

In every one of the major leagues, coaches are quick to point out anyone of several contenders could grab the title.

Last year, everyone started the season playing for second place, behind everyone's choice—Ohio State's defending national champions.

This year, the Buckeyes certainly will have a say-so in the national race, but Michigan, which tied Ohio State for the Big 10 title, figures to be in the battle.

Texas and Arkansas will stage another of their familiar shootouts for the Southwest Conference championship.

On the Pacific Coast, where Johnny McKay dreams of USC being the first coast school to go to the Rose Bowl five consecutive years, the Trojans are challenged by Stanford and UCLA.

Of the top "form chart" entries, only Penn State appears without a serious challenger for its area laurels.

In the Big Eight Conference, where the teams finally made their appearance on the offensive statistical charts, there's a good race forecast among Missouri, Nebraska, Colorado and Kansas State.

In the Southeast, Manning gives Ole Miss a little edge, but LSU, Florida, Tennessee and Auburn are loaded, too. Memphis State appears to be the class of the Missouri Valley, and San Diego State lists no logical challengers for its laurels outside the Pacific Eight on the West Coast.

Army and Navy figure to be improved, while the Ivy League appears to be a dogfight among Dartmouth, Princeton and Yale.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS, 1924-1969

Texas was the 1969 choice of both the writers' and coaches' polls as college football's unofficial national champion. The Longhorns also were voted the Grantland Rice Award by the Football Writers' Association of America.

It was Texas' second national crown in the last seven seasons.

The Associated Press poll of sports writers was originated in 1936 and the United Press International poll of coaches in 1950. Representing opinions of observers across the country, they are the popularly accepted electors to national ranking. Prior to the polls, the Rissman and Knute Rockne trophies symbolized the championships from 1924 to 1936. The titlists so designated:

1969—Texas	1957—Auburn, Ohio St.	1946—Notre Dame	1935—SMU
1968—Ohio State	1956—Oklahoma	1945—Army	1934—Minnesota

NATIONAL RATINGS, 1936-1969

The most successful major teams of the past 34 years, according to the ratings produced by the press association polls, have been Notre Dame and Oklahoma. Counting 10 points for each season-end first place rating, 9 for second and so on, the Irish have accumulated 143 points, to the Sooners' next best 102.

Notre Dame 143	Ohio State 85	Michigan 77	Army 61
Oklahoma 102	Texas 81	Mich. State 72	Minnesota 57
Alabama 85	Tennessee 78	Southern Cal 66	LSU 55

WHAJA LOSE? is solicitous attitude of Drexel's Tom Matthews, bending over teammate Bill Myers (81) and Lafayette's Larry Flohr. Actually, Myers has just been tackled after catching a pass that wasn't enough to prevent Drexel losing, 27-7.

Air Force Academy again will rank as one of the top independent teams, and while Notre Dame isn't talking another bowl game, coach Ara Parseghian will field a better-than-representative Fighting Irish team.

Among coaching changes, Jim Carlen took over for J. T. King at Texas Tech; Doug Dickey returned to Florida and Bill Battle replaced him at Tennessee; Hootie Ingram stepped in for Frank Howard at Clemson and Homer Smith went from Davidson to Pacific, with Dave Fagg now at Davidson.

ALSO MAKING NEW HEAD COACHING STARTS are Bob DeMoss at Purdue, John Jardine at Wisconsin, Bob Bowden at West Virginia, Lou Ferry at Villanova, Mike McGee at East Carolina, Jerry Wampler at Colorado State University and Dick Selcer at Xavier.

Two of the veterans of the wars stepped aside from active coaching. Jack Curtice turned over the reins to Andy Everest at University of California at Santa Barbara, and Jake Gaithers stepped down at Florida A&M.

The Centennial of College Football promotion was a great success. It started with the replay of the first Princeton-Rutgers game and wound up with the "national championship" on TV, with President Nixon joining the throng at Fayetteville.

That Centennial season might be a hard act to follow, but don't forget the veteran crews returning at Texas, Arkansas, Mississippi, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Michigan, USC, Stanford, UCLA and LSU.

A YEAR AGO, THE COACHES TALKED ABOUT moving some of their superior athletes to the defensive unit, in an effort to cut down on scoring.

The defense managed to stop some of the high-scoring trends, but no favorite could rest easily. It was that type of a year, and there appears to be more of the same in the offing.

Now, with a tremendous crop of quarterbacks and receivers returning, the offense still will have the advantage. With Texas throwing on "fourth and three" with the national championship at stake, college football thrills obviously are just beginning.

End Of Penn State's 30-Game Skein Not Necessarily On 1970 Schedule

By KEN VAN SICKLE

Sports Editor, The Ithaca (N.Y.) Journal
Director, Football Writers' Association of America

Generally, eastern football should scale new heights this year—all down the line. But whether the others can reach the high level of Penn State (30 straight without defeat) only a few tough contests will tell.

The Nittanyans, who vied with Texas for national honors in 1969, shouldn't be quite as much, what with seven defensive starters and quarterback Chuck Burkhardt gone. It may take more than a presidential citation to remain on the undefeated trail and into further bowl activity. But around University Park, Pa., there is only quiet optimism and absolutely nobody is offering coach Joe Paterno condolences.

WEST VIRGINIA, A BORDER SCHOOL which would prefer to be classified "eastern" than "southern," returns one of the nation's best backfields in hopes of duplicating the great 10-1 record of 1969.

Syracuse, 5-5 last season, is expected to be on the road back in its 22nd campaign under Ben Schwartzwalder.

Boston College has 31 lettermen, chief of whom is passing ace Frank (Red) Harris, who has all but rewritten the BC passing record book.

Pittsburgh's Panthers, under the guidance of Carl DePasqua, rose to 4-6 after a low of 1-9 in 1968. Even greater things are expected.

Army and Navy after some rebuilding, should be all the better.

Rutgers, Colgate and Buffalo, all on the winning side a year ago, have the ingredients for more of the same.

DARTMOUTH, Princeton and Yale, which tied for the Ivy League title, appear to be the best in the Ancient Eight once again, although Cornell and its hard-running halfback, Ed Marinaro, must be given strong consideration.

Holy Cross is welcomed back after a season that was wrecked by hepatitis.

Penn State lost a lot but

Anybody claiming to be an expert on Ivy League football better clear credentials with Ken Van Sickle, sports editor of The Ithaca Journal. Van Sickle knows the history of the Ancient Eight pretty well himself, having kept track of its modus operandi the 35 years he's been with The Journal. In fact, the New Yorker has followed the ups and downs of most major teams in the East.

Van Sickle has been a stringer for several American newspapers and in 1946 edited a U.S. Naval Hospital publication, Drydock, at San Diego, Calif. He was 1 position on the Journal elevated to the No. 1 position on the Journal sports staff 24 years ago.

ORANGE CRUSH—Penn State's Charlie Pittman is stopped in his tracks by Syracuse trio of Bob Rust (left), Ted Lachowicz (68) and Jack Protz (50), before record crowd of over 42,000 in Syracuse's Archbold Stadium. Orange got squeezed, 15-14.

remains strong in running backs, chief of whom is Franco Harris, and there is experience all along the offensive line.

Gary Hull returns at defensive end, Jack Ham at linebacker. Mike Smith will move from linebacker to the secondary with George Landis.

Likely replacements in the defensive line are rising sophomores John Skarzynski (6-3, 221) and John Skorupan (6-2, 211), and juniors Frank Ahrenhold (6-2, 221) and Gary Carter (6-2, 226). A defensive end possibility could be Bruce Kordic, who missed last season because of an injury.

SPLIT END GREG EDMONDS, if he receives capable passing, has the ability to break school records. Offensive guard Charlie Zapiec, an All-American possibility, is another returnee, along with guard Bob Holuba, center Warren Koegel and tackle Vic Surma. All were starters in 1969.

Returning with the talented Harris in the backfield are Lydell Mitchell and Gary Deuel. Good-looking sophomores are Carroll Cayette, Bruce Bannon (6-3, 210) and Paul Cabel (6-4, 230).

New West Virginia coach Bobby Bowden inherits fullback Jim Braxton, the nation's eighth leading scorer, halfbacks Bob Gresham and Eddie Williams and quarterback Mike Sherwood.

Bowden's big problem will be to shore up the offensive line. Linebacker Dale Farley, a 6-3, 235-pound senior, heads the defensive corps.

LYNN MOORE, A TOP RUSHER, is one of 12 lettermen lost by Army. Whereas Tom Cahill had to rebuild the offensive backfield last year he has only to find a replacement for Moore this year. Returning are quarterbacks Bernie Wall and Bob Mohn, flanker Bill Roden and fullback Ray Ritacco.

The top two receivers, split end Joe Albano and tight end Mike Masciello, also will be back, along with guard Paul Watkins and tackle Bob Johnson.

Defensive starters in the fold are ends John Roth and Dave Smith, tackle

Ken Wyrick, linebacker Bob Coonan and halfbacks Randy Stein and Danton Steele. In placekicker Arden Jensen the Cadets have a real talent.

Last year's Plebe team was a good one and Cahill looks for several to help out immensely. Quarterback Dick Atha may be a threat. Bob Hines is a sure-fire halfback possibility.

QUARTERBACK MIKE McNALLEN, A TWO-YEAR STARTER, will trigger Navy's offense again. There also is Ade Dillon, a record-setting passer with last year's Plebes. Jeff Steelman is the most experienced ball-carrier.

The Middies will look to newcomers Glen Nardi (220) and Mike O'Shaughnessy (230), both tackles, to help bolster the defensive line.

Syracuse lost its entire interior offensive line. A second unit, with several sophomores, logged considerable playing time, however.

Two Orangemen who will be back are Paul Paolisso, a quarterback who missed all of last season, and defensive tackle Bill Coghill, who last year was wounded three times while serving with the Marines in Vietnam.

Top returnees from '69 include tackle-linebacker Ray White, defensive tackle Joe Ehrmann (6-5, 255), fullback Al Newton, split end Tony Gabriel, tailback Marty Januszkiewicz and defensive halfback Tom Myers.

BEST SYRACUSE NEWCOMERS appear to be Roger Praetorius, a Larry Csonka type fullback, and Chuck Chulada, a 6-4, 240-pound lineman.

Boston College's strong suit appears to be the offensive backfield, led by Harris. Fred Willis is a stellar Eagle runner with a two-year 5.6 average.

CENTENNIAL SCORE—Dwarfed by 100th anniversary display, Rutgers captain Bob Stonebraker catches touchdown pass among three Princeton defenders. As in their 1869 meeting inaugurating American football, Rutgers won it, this time by 29-0.

Skip Coppola, halfback, leads a veteran defensive backfield.

Before last season rolled around there was much sympathy for Yale, after it lost practically everybody from the team that hadn't lost in 17 straight outings. But there was no need for sympathy. Carmen Cozza developed a winner that figured in the Ivy title a third straight year.

Cozza has 20 lettermen back, including his entire starting backfield of Joe Massey, Don Martin, Bob Milligan and Billy Primps.

Princeton had a splendid first year (6-3) under Jake McCandless as it switched from the single wing to the T. Brian McCullough, injured late last season, is a returnee along with John Bjorklund, who took over for McCullough and scored three touchdowns against Dartmouth.

H-E-L-P!—Columbia tailback Dick Alexander senses disaster as four hungry Harvard defenders move in for violence en-masse. Stop by Neil Hurley (41), Dale Neal (65), Dennis Doyle (82) and Rick Berne set day's tone as Crimson routed Lions, 51-0.

SOMEHOW, HE CAUGHT IT!—Tufts split end Rich Giachetti set a New England career record with 159 pass receptions, of which the most incredible had to be this glue-fingered feat that helped the Jumbos wallop Colby's Mules last season, 40-13.

Dartmouth has had a long time to seethe over the Princeton ambush that wrecked an unbeaten season. And it won't be long before it can try for redemption. The Ivy schedule calls for them to tangle in early October.

BOB BLACKMAN, VETERAN INDIAN CHIEF, reflected on the '69 finale in commenting, "It occurs to me that it would have been hard to improve on a 9-0 record and that we might have had problems generating motivation. There is one very obvious way to improve on an 8-1 season."

Jim Chasey, after shoulder surgery, is expected to start at quarterback again. John Short should be invaluable as a running back, kick returner and pass receiver. Mark Stevenson, center, leads the offensive line. Linebacker Murry Bowden, halfback Russ Adams and tackle Barry Brink are veteran defenders. Key sophomores could be quarterback Steve Stetson, offensive end Gregg Brown and defensive tackle Tom Tarazevits.

Cornell views the season optimistically, with 31 lettermen, including Marinaro. He was the first Easterner to lead the nation's rushers any one week of any season since 1952.

THE BIG RED MAY FIND MORE OFFENSIVE HELP for Marinaro this year in Tom Albright, a transfer from Wisconsin, and Mark Piscitelli, a rugged sophomore. Rick Furbush returns as quarterback but may face a challenge from lanky sophomore Barrett Rosser.

Another Cornell scoring threat is shoeless kicker John Killian. His 54-yard field goal against Columbia set something of a record for somebody kicking only in his sock. The Big Red's defensive unit should be more seasoned, with linebacker Dennis Lubozynski the leader.

Harvard, Pennsylvania, Columbia and Brown all had quarterback problems during the 1969 campaign. All three can be more than merely Ivy League spoilers if they solve that problem.

Only 16 Harvard lettermen return, only four offense starters—ends Pete Varney, and Bruce Freeman, halfback Steve Harrison and fullback Tom Miller. Five different quarterbacks were used last year. Three who are back are Rex Blankenship, Joe Roda and John O'Grady.

Six starters are back on defense where the team was noticeably short-handed in 1969. Cornerback Rick Frisbie is a good one.

Penn's Bob Odell is faced with a rebuilding job of vast proportions. Outstanding returnee is linebacker Jim Fuddy. On offense the standouts are expected to be Pete Luciano, Bob Long and Greg Leavitt.

Frank Navarro, at Columbia, tried different quarterbacks in 1969 but stayed mostly with Bill Flynn, who looks to be the man once again. Also back is ball-toter John Sefcik, all 152 pounds of him.

Brown, if it can keep its ball players healthier, may do better for coach Len Jardine. Bryan Marini will be in his third year as quarterback.

Colgate should be improved in all phases, with Steve Goepel back at quarterback, Don Fischer at tailback and Steve Morgan at fullback. Two fine sophomore backfield prospects are Paul Byrne and Steve Fraser. Juniors

Alex Maslanka and Brian Houseal are strong at center and guard, respectively. Anchoring the defensive line will be John Lennon, a 6-4, 230-pounder.

Rutgers has 22 lettermen, 12 of them starters. Fullback Steve Ferrughelli, a 230-pounder, has good speed and should be a great one.

The key to coach John Bateman's offense, though, may be how Mike Yancheff handles the quarterback chores, replacing the talented Rich Policastro.

Drew Gordon and Joe Belasco once again comprise a Villanova quarterback team. Bill Walk, an 8.9 junior rusher, should be even better.

Holy Cross will have just about everybody who played briefly before the hepatitis interruption last year. And fullback Tom Lamb, tackle Bill Moncevicz and flanker Eddie Murphy will get to play one extra season.

They'll be watching the hepatitis-plagued Crusaders closely. Penn State will command attention, too—away down in Texas and even as far "away" as the White House.

† Division champion.														* Ineligible for conference title

There will not be any formal football competition in the University Division of the Middle Atlantic Conference in 1970. Scheduling problems caused the UD to fold its tent after 12 years.

Delaware, champion the last two years and six of the 12 years the league existed, appears headed for another successful season. Heading the returnees is fullback Chuck Hall, a two-time all-league selection.

Lehigh should be stronger this season behind offensive tackle Thad Jamula and back Don Diorio.

Gettysburg should be a team to be reckoned with again in 1970. Bucknell, Hofstra, Lafayette and Temple all expect to be improved.

Wilkes, winner of at least a share of the College Division, Northern Section championship for five straight years, will not be playing enough games to be eligible for the crown in 1970. Its absence should result in a three-way fight for the crown between Susquehanna, Juniata and Delaware Valley. Albright, Lycoming and Upsala are all rebuilding.

The all-conference passing combination of quarterback Ernie Tyler and split end Cal McCants could make Susquehanna the favorite. Delaware Valley will build its attack around hard-running halfback Richard Glenn. Juniata also boasts an outstanding running threat in halfback Dave Sparks.

Johns Hopkins figures to be the class of the College Division, Southern Section. Chief challengers to the Blue Jays probably will be Lebanon Valley and Ursinus.

Dickinson, Moravian and Muhlenberg may be the most improved teams in the Southern Section. Franklin & Marshall, Haverford, PMC, Swarthmore and Western Maryland are all rebuilding.

Coach Vic Fusia's Massachusetts squad annexed its third conference championship in the last four years by compiling an unblemished record in league games last fall. With 25 lettermen and eight all-conference performers returning, it appears the Redman will once again be cast in the favorite role.

Connecticut looms as a real threat to the defending champions and quarterback Rick Robustelli and halfback Vinny Clements head a fine list of returning lettermen for coach John Toner's squad. An unusual number of injuries raised havoc with the New Hampshire squad last fall but with a bit more luck the Wildcats might approach their record of two years ago when they tied Connecticut for league honors.

If Maine Coach Walt Abbott can find a quarterback, the Black Bears could become a serious contender. New head coaches at Rhode Island and Vermont should give these teams new looks this fall, but it will be extremely difficult for both squads to make the big jump to the top.

Domination of the Eastern Football Conference by Connecticut colleges may come to an end this season. New Jersey's Montclair State College, with seven first-team all-EFC players returning, is the pre-season favorite.

Among Montclair's lettermen are fullback Tony Valpone and halfback Don Cooper, the conference's second and third leading rushers in 1969.

Bridgeport lost several key players and must rebuild.

Glassboro, which had its best season (5-3) since returning to football several years ago, will build around all-EFC choices Larry Gainer at halfback and Mario Harris at defensive tackle.

Southern Connecticut and Central Connecticut should be better and could threaten for the title. Southern has almost everyone back, including junior halfback Walt Shelton, one of the top runners in the league last season.

What Gives Folks The Shakes Down South? Rebels, Gamecocks, Spiders

By LESLIE TIMMS

Sports Editor, The Spartanburg (S.C.) Herald & Journal
Director, Football Writers' Association of America

Archie for President signs will be springing up all through Mississippi again this year and the tales that will be told about Elisha Archie Manning III might make one think that he is a character from one of William Faulkner's books about life in old Mississippi.

But Archie Manning is for real and the "Archie for President" signs adequately give vent to the feelings of the host of Mississippians who see the Ole Miss quarterback as the most exciting leader the state has had since Jefferson Davis.

IN A YEAR IN WHICH EXCITING QUARTERBACKS are expected to share the limelight throughout the South, Manning could have a spotlight of his own. Other quarterbacks in the South had more impressive statistics such as Florida's John Reaves who led the nation in passing, but none can top the stories which have developed around Archie.

Last year against Georgia, Archie was belted hard early in the game. He was knocked out momentarily with five minutes to play in the first half.

After treatment in the dressing room, including a stint under a cold shower, Archie rushed back on the field with seven minutes to play in the third quarter and again brought the Rebels from behind to a 25-17 victory. Maybe that's why Georgia coach Vince Dooley says, "He's the greatest football player I have ever seen."

Despite all the heroics which went on down in Mississippi last year, the football spotlight in the South shouldn't be monopolized by one man.

REAVES IS BACK at Florida with Carlos Alvarez, the Cuban Comet, again on the receiving end of his passes, Scott Hunter returns to Alabama with a brutish cast of characters to help move the ball on the ground, Pat Sullivan is ready for his junior year at

Three times named South Carolina Sports Writer Of The Year, Leslie Timms is so busy as sports head of the Spartanburg Herald and Journal he rarely finds time for one of his hobbies—golf.

Besides supervising a seven-man staff and writing a column five days a week, Timms covers the football and basketball adventures of the Atlantic Coast and Southern conferences.

The Furman University graduate also is vice president of the Atlantic Coast Sports Writers Association and ex-prexy of the South Carolina sports writing clan.

Perhaps one secret of Timms' success is that he lists sports as one of his favorite pastimes.

Auburn, Leo Hart goes back under the gun at Duke, scrambling Tommy Suggs tries to duplicate last year's feats at South Carolina and Charlie Richards is all set to run Frank Jones' wide open offense at Richmond. So the football should fill the air again in Dixie.

Ole Miss draws the favorite's role in the SEC, because not only Manning but nine other offensive starters return. LSU, Florida, Tennessee and Auburn are regarded as the prime challengers.

SOUTH CAROLINA'S GAMECOCKS, who won their first Atlantic Coast Conference title last season, are picked to repeat, with North Carolina, N.C. State and Clemson providing the stiffest opposition.

Richmond's Spiders, upset by Davidson last year in the Southern, should regain the crown this season. Florida State, where Bill Peterson came up with a potent ground offense last year, should be the top independent.

Ole Miss must replace six defensive starters but big Dennis Coleman at defensive end gives a solid foundation to build around. Bob Knight and bruising sophomore Luther Webb supply the power in the offensive backfield and Manning will have four veteran wide receivers as targets this year.

LSU must replace eight starters from last year's offensive unit which was the highest scoring the school has had since 1908. Sophomore Bert Jones, a strong 6-3, 190-pounder, is given a good chance to move in at quarterback, and if he can guide the Bengal offense as well as graduate Mike Hillman, coach Charlie McClendon believes his defense will come close to the '69 performance when it led the nation in rushing defense.

FLORIDA GETS A NEW COACH as former Gator quarterback Doug Dickey returned to his boyhood home from Tennessee the week after the Gators defeated Tennessee in the Gator Bowl. Reaves, who completed 222 of 396 passes, 88 for 1,329 to Alvarez, gets solid ground support from Tommy Durrance. He gained 731 yards last year. Linebacker Mike Kelley is of all-star caliber and offensive tackle Fred Abbott shows promise of greatness.

Young Bill Battle has reason to believe that his Vols will be a challenger in his first season at Tennessee. All-American Chip Kell returns at guard, and the entire starting backfield of quarterback Bobby Scott, tailback Don McLeary, fullback Curt Watson and wingback Lester McClain is back and ready to play. The Vols lost two All-America linebackers but junior Jackie Walker could earn that honor this season along with halfback Tim Priest.

HAI A BALL SNATCHER!—A sideline's hand seems to be reaching for the football just caught for a touchdown by Duke end Wes Chesson, who's on his back in the North Carolina end zone. Chesson sparked Blue Devils to 17-13 upset of Tar Heels.

FLYING LOW. Georgia Tech defensive halfback Jeff (The Jet) Ford almost pulled off an interception on this play against Southern California's 29-18 victors. On his nine successful thefts, the Yellow Jacket star returned a national record 257 yards.

Running back Kevin Milam is the brightest soph.

Auburn coach Ralph (Shug) Jordan must refurbish a defense which ranked third in the nation against the rush last season, but he does have the key components to keep his high-powered offense rolling. Quarterback Pat Sullivan is back for his junior season and he hopes to improve on his 1969 figure of 1,892 total offense yards. Running backs Mickey Zofko and Mike Currier are talented men.

PAUL (BEAR) BRYANT DECIDED to divest himself of many of the duties which go with the athletic director's portion of his job after Alabama's Crimson Tide fell to a 6-4 regular season record and then was routed by Colorado in the Liberty Bowl. Bryant has talented Scott Hunter at quarterback and George Ranager heading a flock of receivers. Tailback Johnny Musso will have help from Dave Brungard, a transfer from Ohio State, and Jess Causey, a high prep prize who was injured and missed last season. But, it is on defense where the Tide should be improved with six starters back and aided by a fine sophomore group, which includes 268-pound John Hannah, the largest Tide player in a decade.

To help his sputtering offense, Georgia coach Vince Dooley hired offensive aide Fred Pancoast from Florida, and he hopes quarterback Mike Cavan will return to his sophomore form. Senior Paul Gilbert also will get a chance at guiding the Bulldogs.

QUARTERBACK WATSON BROWN and strapping tight end Karl Weiss are two of the reasons Vanderbilt coach Bill Pace smiles over the thoughts of starting his fourth season as the Commodore helmsman. Split end Curt Chesley and defensive tackle John Robinson should again be standouts.

Kentucky expects improvement over last year's 2-8 record. Sophomore Cecil Bowens, a 6-3, 230-pounder, could blossom into stardom as a running back. Bernie Scruggs, Steve Tingle and Stan Forston will battle for the quarterback job they shared last season. Pat Eckenrod, a well-built junior, anchors the offensive line.

SPLIT END SAMMY MILNER brings the widest smile to stolid Charley Shira's face at Mississippi State. The two-time all-conference performer hopes he has as much success with Joe Reed as he did with now graduated Tommy Pharr at quarterback. Jerry Conrad and Mike Eaton are top defenders.

South Carolina must replace all-star fullback Warren Muir as it goes about the unfamiliar task of defending its Atlantic Coast Conference crown. Scrambling quarterback Tommy Suggs is a proven winner and defensive tackle Jimmy Poston, a 250-pounder, is an All-America possibility.

North Carolina came on strong last season, and with ACC Player-of-the-Year Don McCauley back at running back, should be even better. Defensive end Judge Mattocks and offensive end Tony Blanchard could be the best in the conference at their positions. Bill Dooley's problem is quarterback.

YOUNG HOOTIE INGRAM TAKES OVER as the Clemson coach, replacing Frank Howard, who retired after 30 years as head man. Tailback Ray Yauger, who is expected to challenge McCauley for rushing honors, must recover from a knee operation. Tommy Kendrick could be a standout at quarterback.

Earle Edwards, now the dean of ACC coaches, faces a major rebuilding job at N.C. State. Safety Jack Whitley, twice an all-conference performer, could be the standout for the Wolfpack.

Duke could have its finest team in years as quarterback Leo Hart, the school's all-time total offense leader, gets help from fine runners Phil Asack, John Cappellano and Bob Zwirko. Linebacker Dick Biddle, injured last season, also returns.

Virginia should bounce back from last year's cellar finish as coach George

Blackburn has a fine group of receivers and may rely more on the passing game despite the presence of shifty runner Gary Helman.

Roy Lester begins his second season as Maryland coach with improvement in sight. Sophomore end Don Ratliff could be one of the finest grid-ders ever at Maryland. Tom Miller is the key man in the ground attack and Dennis O'Hara and Jeff Shugars give the Terps two competent quarterbacks.

A BRUTAL NON-CONFERENCE SCHEDULE severely hampers Cal Stoll's hopes for a successful season at Wake Forest. Junior college men plus defensive aces Win Headley and Roman Wszelaki will aid the Deacons.

Frank Jones has achieved the ultimate at Richmond, fielding a team with a wide open aerial attack and the top defense in the league, while reaching a level of domination in the Southern Conference that is usually achieved only by Russian premiers.

The Spiders lost key linemen, but quarterback Charlie Richards and flanker Jim Livesay represent an exceptional offensive tandem.

Davidson, on the other hand, not only lost the Southern Conference Player-of-the-Year, quarterback Gordon Slade, but saw coach Homer Smith resign after school officials threatened to de-emphasize football. He was replaced by assistant coach Dave Fagg, who faces a rebuilding season.

THE CITADEL COULD BE THE CLOSEST THING to a threat the Spiders will have this season. Coach Red Parker's Cadets have the conference's leading rusher, Bob Duncan, and Billy Watson, a punt return specialist who also played flanker, has been moved into the quarterback job.

East Carolina is in a transitional year with new coach Mike McGee changing over from the single wing used by predecessor Clarence Stasavich, and William & Mary is something of an unknown quantity.

Furman, after trying unsuccessfully to compete in the conference while operating on limited scholarships, is back at full gear, but it is unlikely that it will help the Paladins this season. Quarterback Cleve Hightower and full-back George Vaughn are the standouts.

Virginia Military Institute has 16 starters returning from last year's 0-10 team plus some outstanding sophomores.

Bill Peterson is the acknowledged master at coming up with a slick passing attack at Florida State. This year he must replace standout Bill Cappleman and find some new faces in the interior line.

PAINFUL PURSUIT—Looking like a wounded warrior, Florida State tackle Bob McEachern reaches with one hand to try to halt progress of Houston quarterback Gary Mullins in Astrodome skirmish. Seminoles went home licking wounds of 41-13 setback.

Frank Whigham, a dropback type, and Tommy Warren, a scrambler, are the prime candidates at quarterback, and the man who wins will have outstanding targets in Jim Tyson and Kent Gaydos.

Running backs Tom Bailey and Paul Magalski proved last season that the Seminoles don't have to go by air to be successful.

VIRGINIA TECH COULD PROVIDE THE CHIEF CHALLENGE to the Seminoles as the South's top independent, with quarterback Bob German one of the big reasons. Offensive guard Butch Hall is one of the South's premier linemen and placekicker-punter Jack Simcsak gives the Gobblers a three-point threat.

Sophomores will play key roles at Georgia Tech. Eddie McAshan, the first Negro football player at Tech, is destined for greatness and may get the nod at quarterback right from the start after a fine freshman season.

But Tech's forte is defense and tackle Rock Perdoni, a native of Italy, may be the best defensive tackle in the country. Defensive halfback Jeff Ford should make All-America lists also. Standout receivers and running back Brent Cunningham give the Jackets their biggest offensive threats.

Jovial Jim Pittman is seeing the fruits of his recruiting pay off in his fifth year at Tulane and with 20 starters returning the Green Wave could surprise. Linebacker Rick Kingrea spearheads a good defensive unit and quarterback Rusty Lachaussee heads the offense.

SOPHOMORES WILL SEE A LOT OF PLAYING TIME for the University of Miami but senior defensive back Tony Stawarz is one man who won't be losing his job. He is a bona fide All-America candidate. Quarterback Kelly Cochrane will have a fine group of receivers as targets.

Ricky Donegan teams with split end Billy Mikel to give Southern Mississippi a talented passing combination but coach P. W. (Bear) Underwood must use inexperienced people on defense. Running back Larry Moulton and linebacker Bill Davis also have star potential.

WHAT'S WRONG HERE?—Southwestern (Tenn.) quarterback Bob Carter seems to be throwing the wrong way, but it's only camera angle on sideline pass to Todd Robbins (83). Lynx must have done something wrong, though, losing to Washington & Lee, 24-19.

Champion East Tennessee State became the fourth OVC team to win an NCAA Regional title when it dumped Louisiana Tech, 34-14, in the Grantland Rice Bowl at Baton Rouge, La., last December. Coach John Robert Bell lost a large number of starters but has a fine nucleus with which to build a defense of the Bucs' championship. Quarterback Larry Graham and linebacker Bubba Timms will be the team's mainstays.

All the other squads have loads of veterans returning, which makes it appear the league could enjoy another fine campaign.

Matt Haug, Murray State's fine passer, Harold "Red" Roberts, the great pass snatcher from Austin Peay and running back Jim Brooks of Eastern Kentucky should be the offensive standouts. End Larry Brame of Western Kentucky, linebacker David Duvall of Middle Tennessee and East Tennessee back Bill Casey will shine defensively.

If they can fill some holes on defense, Northwestern Louisiana's Demons could give the rest of the GSC a devilish time this fall. Thirty-five lettermen return from a surprisingly good 1969 club that went 7-2. The offensive unit is in good shape with nine starters back, headed by QB Mike Pool and FB Richard Ware. There are six defensive vacancies, however.

Defending champion Louisiana Tech suffered massive graduation losses, including All-America QB Terry Bradshaw, his three top receivers and 12 other regulars. Junior Ken Lantrip replaces Bradshaw and will direct what promises to be a more ground-oriented attack.

Southwestern Louisiana came on strong at the end to finish third but lost linebacker Glenn Lafleur and its top two backs. GSC "Lineman of the Year" Ronnie Hornsby leads the league's best defense for the Lions, who also have two fine runners in Darrell Beard and Ted Glaser.

McNeese and Northeast Louisiana are rebuilding. McNeese under new coach Jack Doland, ex-LSU aide, Doland has two good backs, GSC rushing champ Larry Grissom (1,149 yards) and Buz Sarver (553 yards), but few experienced linemen. Two-time all-GSC Joe Profit, who ran for 1,027 yards, and an improved defense led by all-league guard Jimmy Aarons could trigger a comeback at Northeast.

Three teams mentioned last year as contenders for the 1969 CIAA title—defending monarch Johnson C. Smith, North Carolina Central, North Carolina A&T—are picked again to fight it out for the 1970 crown.

Virginia Union, which knocked Virginia State and North Carolina Central from the unbeaten ranks last season, could also be among the leaders.

Major weapon for CIAA teams will be the forward pass, which dominated conference games in 1969. Some of the better combinations were Herman Mathews to Julian Martin for NCC; Elroy Duncan to John Parker for Smith; Stanley Jacobs to Willie Wright for A&T; and John Hart to Luther Palmer for Virginia Union.

The accent will be on youth in the CAC. Individual stars are expected to be Centre's Greg Ely, Washington University's Stan Gardner and Southwestern's Robert Carter, all sophomores.

Sewanee lost only a handful of seniors off its very young team, while Washington & Lee must sift among several untried sophs to find a quarterback. Champion Centre will miss quarterback Paul Ethridge but returns the rest of the starting backfield, including Ely, who was the conference's fourth leading rusher despite missing half the season because of an injury.

Washington's "Kiddie Korps" will feature sophs Gardner, the conference's leading rusher last year, plus passing ace Jeff Daube.

Southwestern has not only a superb passer in Carter but most of its strong defense, including all-conference Dick Heien and Mike DeSalvo, linebacker John Churchill and back Ken LeBlanc.

Sewanee lost only 10 seniors but included was two-time all-conference Bubba Owens, plus Shropie Dunaway and some key linemen. The youthful Tigers will feature high scorers Keith Bell and Tim Turpen.

Washington & Lee's standout should be defensive back Dave Brooks, whose six 1969 interceptions included a record-breaking 101-yarder in St. Louis' Busch Stadium. Bruce Green and Steve Mahaffey will be chief receivers.

Randolph-Macon is possessor of three straight Mason-Dixon titles, and other contenders will have to contain a powerful offense if R-M is to be denied a fourth consecutive crown.

With super running threat Howard Stevens leading the way, R-M took the NCAA Division II, Knute Rockne Bowl championship and ended a four-year success story which saw only four Yellow Jacket losses.

The top threats to R-M's domain are Hampden-Sydney and newcomer Towson State. The H-S Tigers welcome back an experienced offensive and defensive line and one of the conference's best athletes, quarterback Bobby Long. Senior tackle Vince Hardy will be leader of a strong offensive line. Towson shows great offensive potential. All-conference performers Al Dodds (QB) and Ron Cadoratte (E) are the key factors for Towson.

Bridgewater and Western Maryland may surprise. Bridgewater has tough running back Marshall Flora returning. Western Maryland will rely on a rebuilt defense anchored by junior tackle Fred Kiemle.

The Yellow Jackets did not lose a back from 1969. Coach Ted Keller has problems at tackle, but other positions look secure. R-M counts four of seven all-conference selections, including MVP Stevens, guard Mike Morris, linebacker Lucky Jones and defensive tackle Wayne Duncan.

Rose Bowl Return Beckons Bucks' Rex Kern-Led Cast Of 15 Regulars

By COOPER ROLLOW

*Sports Editor, The Chicago Tribune
Director, Football Writers' Association of America*

Is Rex Kern going to be around forever working his sleight of hand on opponents of the Ohio State Buckeyes? Nope, this has simply got to be the last year for coach Woody Hayes' gifted gunslinger. It just SEEMS as if Kern has been directing the Buckeyes since the dawn of football because he was an instant star as a sophomore.

The quality of Kern's contribution to the Ohio State cause has not slackened off a whit at any time since he donned Buckeye togs—not even on the final, devastating day of the 1969 season, when Michigan's aroused Wolverines rose up to smack down Hayes' troops, 24 to 12, to clinch a tie for the Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl bid.

THAT ONE HAS TO GO DOWN as one of the games of the century, and the memory of the defeat can serve only to inspire Wayne Woodrow Hayes as he heads into his 20th year at the Ohio State helm with visions of Rose Bowl grandeur dancing very noticeably in his noggin.

The Buckeyes weren't eligible for the Rose Bowl last January, which made it especially fitting and proper that they were upended in the regular season finale by Michigan. At least it was fitting and proper in the minds of Wolverine partisans, since Michigan made the Pasadena trip in the role of Big Ten co-champ, not also-ran.

Cooper Rollow, a graduate of the University of Kansas, joined the Chicago Tribune in 1953 after previous experience on the sports staffs of the Fort Scott Tribune in Kansas and the Lincoln (Neb.) State Journal.

Author of a prize-winning series on Vince Lombardi in 1960, Rollow was named assistant sports editor of the Tribune in 1966 and was elevated to his current position as department chief in 1969.

Among his special duties with the paper are helping promote the nationally televised All-Star football game held each summer in Chicago. The classic has been a Tribune project since 1934.

If Kern, who scored nine touchdowns last autumn and passed for nine others, is able to lead the Buckeyes into the Rose Bowl this season, it will be his second appearance in the big show.

HE RALLIED the Ohio team to a 27 to 16 victory over Southern Cal as a soph.

Kern appears to have the tools to get the job done—personally and team-wise. Ohio State will have a solid nucleus of 15 regulars—eight on offense and seven on defense. In all, 31 lettermen return from last year's team that outscored the opposition, 383 to 93, whipping everyone but Michigan by 27 or more points.

YIPPEE!!—Michigan's Wolverines whoop it up as final gun punctuates 24-12 upset of Ohio State, winning Rose Bowl trip. Jim Mandich (88) is hoisted in air and beaming coaches Bo Schembechler (rear) and George Mans are at right of Joe Schmitz (12).

BOTH REGULAR OHIO STATE HALFBACKS—Leo Hayden and Larry Zelina, will be back, leaving only fullback to be resolved. The latter is a big gap—the absentee is the graduated Jim Otis—but then, Hayes has never had trouble finding fullbacks. Defensively, Ohio State will be led by All-Americans Jack Tatum and Jim Stillwagon.

Nobody is apt to overlook Michigan this year in pre-season speculation on the Big Ten race. Coach Bo Schembechler, who suffered a heart attack the day before his Wolverines lost to Southern Cal, 10 to 3, in the Rose Bowl last January, has ample proven material returning from the squad which won 12 of 14 conference games over a two-year span.

With due apologies to Purdue, last year's third-place club which lost its great quarterback, Mike Phipps, it looks like a two-team race again in the Big Ten between Ohio State and Michigan.

Six offensive starters and seven defensive starters return at Michigan. Such line stalwarts as Guy Murdock, Tim Killian, Dan Dierdorf and Jack Harping are back.

ALL-CONFERENCE BILL TAYLOR (808 yards) and Glenn Doughty (732) return and could play in the same backfield. Phil Seymour, who carries all-Big Ten credentials, returns after just one game in 1969 because of a knee injury. Michigan's defense should be extremely strong again if secondary problems can be worked out.

In South Bend, Ind., the Football Faithful aren't concerned with the Big Ten race. In fact, the Fighting Irish are making a valiant attempt not to think about last January's 21 to 17 loss to Texas in the Cotton Bowl, Notre Dame's first bowl appearance in 45 years.

You'll hear no pre-season bowl talk from coach Ara Parseghian, who is preparing to face his most difficult schedule in years. He has 25 monogram winners to tackle such opponents as Missouri, Louisiana State, Purdue, Southern Cal and Michigan State.

Notre Dame's rebuilding year was a success last fall when Parseghian put together a defensive unit composed of six starting sophomores and an offensive platoon built around only two returning veterans, Jim Reilly and Larry DiNardo.

GOING INTO THE 1970 CAMPAIGN, the Irish at least have an established star at quarterback in Joe Theismann, who as a starting signal caller has led the team to 10 victories, two losses, and two ties.

Parseghian must fill vacancies created by the departure of 14 seniors, nine from the offensive unit and five from the defense.

Defensively, the Irish lose such stalwarts as Bob Olson, the linebacker who was voted the outstanding defensive performer in the Cotton Bowl; Larry Schumacher, Mike McCoy and John Gasser. But seven returnees, including Clarence Ellis at safety and defensive back Ralph Stepaniak, linebackers John Raterman and Tim Kelly, will lead the unit.

Although Parseghian faces a rebuilding task on offense, he can count on a strong nucleus including DiNardo; Gary Kos, also a guard last season who may be switched to tight end, and split end Tom Gatewood. The entire Cotton Bowl backfield of Bill Barz, Denny Allan and Andy Huff returns (plus Theismann). They may not qualify as Four Horsemen, but they're pretty stubborn stallions when they're running with the football.

BOB DEMOSS, ONE OF TWO NEW HEAD COACHES in the Big Ten this year (the other is John Jardine of Wisconsin) opens his inaugural campaign as successor to Jack Mollenkopf at Purdue with the Boilermakers in a paradoxical situation. Last year, Purdue had an experienced quarterback in Mike Phipps and very little else. This season, it is fortified with generally good experience in many positions, but no seasoned signal caller.

The successor to the great Phipps could be Jeff Jones, a quarterback as a sophomore who kicked 44 straight extra points last season. He's a senior. Or it could be one of three sophomores, the most promising of which appears to be Gary Danielson.

Purdue lost five starters off the defensive unit, including both ends, both tackles, and the middle guard. But the corps of 31 returning lettermen includes a couple of ace linebackers, Veno Paraskevas and Jim Teal. Offensively, all six of Purdue's top pass catchers return, including Ashley Bell, who set a school record for most touchdown catches in one season (11). Additionally, the Boilermakers welcome back their leading scorer, Stan Brown, plus ace running backs John Bullock and Randy Cooper.

DUFFY DAUGHERTY'S MICHIGAN STATE SPARTANS expect to make a forward step after a dismal 2-5 conference mark in 1969.

"We have ahead one of the biggest challenges that ever faced a Michigan State football team" Daugherty said realistically last spring. "We come off a season which was mediocre at best and go into another schedule which surely is one of the country's hardest. For starters, who else plays Notre Dame, Ohio and Michigan back to back?"

Only center Tom Beard returns from the Spartan offensive line which was considered perhaps the 1969 team's strongest segment. No fewer than seven men tried out at quarterback during spring drills. Bill Triplett has the edge in experience. Best bet for stardom is Ron Curl, a defensive lineman who was all-conference as a junior.

Minnesota lost a vast amount of talent. The main problem is at quarterback where no experience is left. Juniors Mel Anderson and Craig Curry sparred for the signal calling job in spring workouts. Backfield returnees include Barry Mayer and Ernie Cook. Defense should be the best weapon with most starters returning. The key man here is Jeff Wright.

TWO RECORD-SETTING BACKS—halfback Mike Adamle and quarterback Maurie Daigneau—are among 28 lettermen who give Northwestern coach Alex Agase the most experienced team in his seven seasons as Wildcat mentor. There are seven starters on each platoon. Sophomores aren't expected to be as productive as last year, when 18 newcomers lettered.

In his first year at the Wisconsin helm, Jardine will rely heavily on full-back Alan (A-Train) Thompson, who returns for his junior year after rushing for 907 yards in 1969. The Badgers also boast a couple of outstanding quarterbacks—Neil Graff and Gary Losse—but lost their top three pass receivers. However, tall Albert Hannah returns.

CAUGHT IN A VISE—There was no way Wooster's Jeff Wise could hold on to the ball (arrow) while going through grinding machine contrived by Ashland's Paul Hargrove (lower left), Chuck Draga and Jim Barry. Eagles foiled Fighting Scots, 19-3.

WHAT FOOTBALL?—It does appear to be an unimportant factor in this scuffle among Indiana's John Isenbarger (17) and Don DeSalle (63) and Purdue's Joe Carlone (39). Referee ruled it incomplete pass, in Hoosier-state classic won by Purdue, 44-21.

IF JOHN PONT WEREN'T SUCH AN OPTIMIST, Hoosier loyalists would be taking up a collection for him. Indiana lost its Big Ten rushing leader, John Isenbarger; its famed quarterback, Harry Conso; its all-time receiving leader, Jade Butcher, and its great kicker, Don Warner. "So," beams Pont, "we expect to have a pretty good team." Reasons for the optimism: The defensive line returns intact and upcoming linebackers are the best in Hoosier history. All the new quarterbacks are sprint-out types.

At Iowa, the outlook has taken a turn for the worse due to the dropout of quarterback Larry Lawrence, who transferred to Miami, Fla. Departure of Lawrence means the job will go to one of three sophomores—Jeff Elgin, Kyle Skogman or Frank Sunderman. Remainder of the backfield remains intact, along with the top three 1969 receivers.

With only about a half dozen seniors who were recruited in the spring of the "slush fund" scandal, Illinois must overcome a large personnel void at the top level. Fortunately, coach Jim Valek believes the material in the junior and sophomore classes is exceptional. Major concerns are the defensive backfield and offensive line.

BY ANY STANDARD, the 1969 season was the greatest at the University of Toledo since football began at the Ohio institution in 1917. The Rockets compiled a 5-0 record in rolling to the Mid-American Conference title and finished 10-0 overall.

Head coach Frank X. Lauterbur was named Mid-American Coach-of-the-Year for the second time in three seasons.

Lauterbur this fall welcomes back attack leader Chuck Ealey, a junior quarterback who started his college varsity career exactly the way he finished three years in high school in Portsmouth, Ohio—unbeaten and untied.

Toledo will get another strong challenge from last year's runnerup, Bowling Green (4-1). Leading returnees for Bowling Green include Vern Wireman, quarterback who broke over 10 school passing records as a junior, and Phil Villapiano, senior defensive end, who will take over handling of the defensive crew.

TWENTY-FIVE LETTERMEN RETURN at Miami of Ohio, that perennial hotbed of midwestern football talent. Under new coach Bill Mallory last year, Miami had its 27th consecutive winning season. The Redskins may pass more in '70 because of the loss of their top two rushers. Jim Bengala and split end Mike Palija, a terrific tandem, return.

Quarterback Steve Skiver is one of 20 returning lettermen at Ohio University, where a rebuilding program is in progress, especially on defense. Back in harness are tight end Greg Hull, fullback John Roush, flanker Bobby Allen and tailback Harvey Mitchell.

Coach Dave Puddington looks for marked improvement over Kent State's 1-4 conference and 5-5 overall records of 1969. Kent again will rely upon Don Nottingham and Phil Witherspoon to run for daylight. Quarterbacking will be stronger with Ted Bowersox returning for his second season.

Western Michgian feels it can make a strong run for the 1970 title. Junior quarterback Ted Grignon is the big threat. Running backs Roger Lawson and Bob Ezelle and tight end Greg Flaska also return. Vern Davis, Bill Slater and Greg Igaz are defensive workhorses.

A MARSHALL, THE OUTLOOK IS OPTIMISTIC. A young, aggressive coaching staff headed by Rick Tolley will lead a group of players who closed fast in 1969. Twenty-four lettermen return from that team.

Doc Urich, Northern Illinois University coach, moves into his second season as head man of the Huskies with guarded optimism. His enthusiasm is somewhat tempered by the fact he lost both his experienced quarterbacks by graduation, plus three defensive backs. Still, he has 22 lettermen, including fullback John LaLonde and kicker Tom Wittum.

Another midwestern independent, Dayton, hopes to improve on the 3-7-0 record posted by coach John McVay last autumn, as does Xavier, which managed only one victory in 10 outings.

The Indiana Collegiate Conference football campaign of 1970 promises more balance than seasoned ICC observers ever recall.

Co-defending champions Valparaiso and Evansville understandably expect to be strong, but so do last year's also-rans, Butler, St. Joseph's and DePauw.

Evansville has towering, record-setting Craig Blackford back at quarterback along with the league's leading rusher and scorer, halfback Doug Atherton, and the top pass receiver, end Pete Rupp.

Valparaiso will be inexperienced at quarterback, but the Crusaders had the same situation last year and still went 7-2. Coach Norm Amundsen's entire offensive line returns with the exception of guard Fred Donath.

Center Bob Litzberg bolsters St. Joseph's offensive unit, while Dennis Strobel, a linebacker, heads the Pumas' veteran defensive outfit. Quarterbacks Sheldon Cooper and Terry Campbell should keep St. Joe's renaissance going.

A new era starts at Butler with Billy Sylvester replacing Tony Hinkle who had been at the Butler helm 32 years. Sylvester has last year's No. 1 rusher in Randy Belden; ace place kicker Mike Caito and 18 other lettermen.

DePauw has quarterback Roy Pottenger back and it also has two other strong candidates in Roger Karl and sophomore Dave Borgman. DePauw lost heavily on defense but the offense will get power from the ICC's top punter, Jim Pociak, and the pass catching ability of freshman phenom Norm Brown.

St. Olaf, paced by halfback Ole Gunderson who made a shambles of rushing records as a sophomore in 1969, is top ranked to repeat as champion in the Midwest Conference.

Monmouth, which has finished a close second the last two years, Ripon, Lawrence and Grinnell each will have a brace of talented veterans returning.

Grinnell had 14 sophs on its roster and Ripon had 13 sophs challenging for first team berths. Lawrence placed three juniors and a sophomore on the all-conference team, including junior Lance Alwin, who tied with Coe's Dennis Gay as the league's No. 2 scorer.

Albion College is a slight favorite to repeat as MIAA football champion in 1970. The Britons won their fourth title in six seasons in 1969, ending Alma's two-year reign by scoring in the final minutes for a thrilling 7-3 triumph.

Alma and Albion both had excellent senior groups in 1969, but Albion appears to have retained the most talent overall. Kalamazoo, a surprise third-place finisher in 1969, may be able to retain that spot.

Of the 1969 second-division teams, Adrian, behind the record-breaking passing combination of Tom Bell and Jim Wallace, appears to have the best chance of moving up.

Riding with the winner may not be a good bet in the 14-team Ohio Conference, but Wittenberg's defending champions have enough talent on hand to return to the league throne room in 1970.

The Tigers have 17 starters available, including quarterback Rocky Alt and halfback Darryl Herring to make another strong run at the title.

Expected to challenge Wittenberg will be "bridesmaid" Marietta, second the last two years, and power-packed Baldwin-Wallace. Both teams have excellent personnel with Marietta exploiting a stiff defense that yielded only nine points a game in 1969 and B-W relying on its "run-and-shoot" offense.

Other highly regarded contenders will be always-tough Muskingum, Ohio Wesleyan, behind the running of halfback Rich Henley, the loop's top rusher with 1,036 yards, and Denison.

Mount Union returns top scorer Mike DiBlasi (84 points) to loom as a threat along with Capital and Wooster, which will field veteran teams. Kenyon boasts glue-fingered end Chris Myers (78 catches) and darkhorse credentials.

Otterbein looms as an unknown quantity with a new coach.

Hiram, Heidelberg and Oberlin will be looking for improvement.

The President's Athletic Conference football race will take on a new twist this fall as Case Western Reserve University (formerly Case Tech and Western Reserve) fields its first merged football team, thus reducing from seven to six the number of schools in the league.

Thiel probably has the best chance to unseat defending champion John Carroll. Thiel has four of its six all-PAC honorees returning—offensive end John Gibson, center Joe Kraine, defensive end Don Walters and defensive guard John Wascak.

John Carroll was hit by graduation losses but still has all-PAC choices Mark Mathews, an offensive tackle, and Joel Solomon, defensive tackle.

Allegheny stalwarts are offensive guard Larry Albright and defensive end Colin Smith. Bethany returnees include flanker Paul Krusey and linebacker Charles Carpeta.

Case Western Reserve's merged team faces rebuilding problems.

Washington & Jefferson, behind quarterback Don Kasperik, should improve.

Take away only one starter and two other lettermen from a team that trounced seven successive league foes and two nonconference rivals with relative ease and you have a favorite to repeat as champion. That's the situation in the College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin, where Carthage looms as a top-heavy favorite to win its fifth title in 10 years.

Coach Art Keller will have four all-conference defensive players, headed by three-time all-star Dick Laba at halfback, and the same number of offensive all-stars returning.

Augustana, the 1969 runnerup, could be the top challenger if holes in the offensive line can be plugged and a running threat can be found to take the pressure off all-conference Ken Anderson.

Wheaton returns to conference play after an absence since 1959.

The Missouri Valley [NCAA District 5]

Four Favored Amid Offense-Happy Big Eight; Just Memphis In MVC

By BILL CONNORS

Sports Editor, The Tulsa Daily World

Director, Football Writers' Association of America

This was football 1969 in the traditionally conservative Midlands:

Defensive-minded Missouri yielded 90 points in a span of three games—but lost only once! In back-to-back games against Oklahoma and Missouri, the resurrected Kansas State Wildcats scored 97 points and gained 1,050 yards—but only broke even!

Arch-conservative Missouri, which won two bowl games without completing a pass, threw on seven straight downs and passed 24 times in 41 plays against Oklahoma!

KANSAS STATE HUMILIATED OKLAHOMA, 59-21. Missouri outlasted K-State, 41-38. Colorado defeated K-State, 45-32. Colorado mauled Alabama, 47-33, in the Liberty Bowl. Nebraska ravaged Georgia, 45-6, in the Sun Bowl.

It was, to be sure, the year the offensive revolution spread to the Big Eight. Of course, exploding scoreboards are nothing new in the Missouri Valley Conference, which launched such passing revolutionists as Tulsa's Jerry Rhome, Cincinnati's Greg Cook and North Texas' Steve Ramsey.

Defense, however, was not completely forgotten in 1969. Nebraska, which had the best defense in the Big Eight, shared the championship with Missouri. Memphis, which had the only defense in the Valley, won its second straight undisputed championship.

Seeing Tulsa World sports editor Bill Connors at collegiate football games in Oklahoma has become as common a sight as oil derricks to Sooner State gridiron aficionados.

Connors has been viewing the pigskin parade for the World since 1952 and is still going strongly despite taking the added responsibility of writing a column when he became sports editor in 1964. He also bounced from arena to arena with the basketballers, writing from that beat 12 years for the World.

A repeat byliner in the Official Football Guide (Missouri Valley Roundup, 1963), Connors has won three state sports-writer-of-the-year awards.

But the offensive epidemic must be infectious.

MEMPHIS WILL BE favored to make it three straight titles in 1970. But the Tigers talk first about their offense. Nebraska will be a leading contender, but because of the most promising backfield Bob Devaney ever had.

There is additional evidence to suggest the offensive trend will continue.

Every Big Eight team except Missouri and Oklahoma State returns its quarterback, prompting Missouri's Dan Devine to speculate, "it will be another hard year for the defenses."

Oklahoma coach Chuck Fairbanks agrees and adds, "it's not just the quarterbacks; there are so many gifted athletes throughout our conference that I would guess the offenses will continue to dominate."

LOUISVILLE IS THE ONLY MISSOURI VALLEY TEAM that returns its quarterback. But the Valley's thunder may not be diluted. There are plenty of exciting runners and some soft defenses for them to attack.

There is no clear-cut favorite in the Big Eight, but four standout contenders: Nebraska, Colorado, Missouri and Kansas State.

"The conference is so strong and superbly balanced," Colorado coach Eddie Crowder says, "that it will take a team with great poise and consistency to win the championship."

The team that seemingly has the potential to meet Crowder's qualifications has no tradition, except as a loser. Kansas State has had only three winning seasons in 35 years, none in the last 15, and won its only championship in 1934.

Kansas State is loaded with experience (17 returning starters), speed, depth and has the most prolific quarterback in conference history in Lynn Dickey. It is a senior team, developed astonishingly fast by Vince Gibson, who inherited a seemingly hopeless task in 1967.

THE RESERVATION ABOUT THE WILDCATS IS THIS: Have they learned to live with success, and endure week-to-week pressure? They were in first place with a 5-1 record last year going into November, and lost to Missouri, Oklahoma State, Nebraska and Colorado in successive cliffhangers.

But there are reservations about the other three, too. Colorado has the second most experienced team. The Buffs (8-3) return 15 starters, eight on offense and seven from the conference's most punishing defense. But can they compensate for the loss of tailback Bob Anderson?

VERRY INTERESTING—Object that has rapt attention of Kansas State's Lynn Dickey (11) and Kansas' Al Jakobcic is Dickey's 61-yard pass that KSU's Lloyd Yarnell has caught on Jayhawk one-yard line. K-State socked it to arch rivals, 26-22.

Nebraska (9-2) has the most enviable schedule, plus that flashy and deep backfield. But the Cornhuskers also have a green secondary, which is NOT the place to be vulnerable in these high-octane times.

MISSOURI (9-2) HAS ITS USUAL MUSCLE and the league's leading runner in tailback Joe Moore. But the Tigers must break in a new quarterback.

Oklahoma, despite losing Heisman Trophy winner Steve Owens and two other standouts, might make it a five-team race. The Sooners have a suspect defense and an inexperienced offense. But their sophomores, led by runner Joe Wylie and receiver Greg Pruitt, are exceptional.

The last two times Oklahoma played a lot of sophomores, the Sooners won championships (1962 and 1967).

Oklahoma State, the big surprise last year, and Kansas, the big disappointment, and Iowa State appear a bracket below the others. But each thinks it could be competent if its quarterback produces.

So much has been built in the Big Eight that the forthcoming race inspires vague, coaching-manual type comment ("a wide open race") from every coach except the colorful and uninhibited Gibson.

"ANYBODY THAT WINS THE CHAMPIONSHIP has got to beat us," says Gibson. "Last year, I said we could compete with anybody, and I think we proved we could. This year, I think we can beat anybody. I am not saying we will. But we can. We've got 37 lettermen and a lot of talent."

The Wildcat who makes Gibson drool is Dickey. "He's the best quarterback," Gibson says, "and I don't mean just in our conference, I mean the world." Dickey, 6-4 and with an artistic style, was the nation's No. 6 passer last year, with his 197 completions—almost 20 per game.

K-State complements Dickey with a line that excelled last year in pass protection, fast receivers and big, swift running backs.

FULLBACK MIKE MONTGOMERY may be the best all-purpose operative in the conference. Tailback Russell Harrison is 218 and fast. Much will depend on how fleet Henry Hawthorne operates at wingback.

K-State led the Big Eight last year in defense against rushing, but leaked against passing. With the entire secondary returning, Gibson believes the deficiency will be corrected. The Wildcat line will be the equal of last year, Gibson thinks.

If, as some say, a champion must have solid strength up the middle, Colorado has a qualifying start. The Buffs have a magnificent center in Don Popplewell, a powerful fullback in Ward Walsh and a capable quarterback in Jim Bratten, plus a valuable passing backup in Paul Arendt.

The Buffs return most of their offensive line and will unveil an exciting wide receiver in Cliff Branch, a 9.3 sprinter, who was ineligible last year. Larry Thomas is a possibility to start in the departed Bob Anderson's slot.

COLORADO LOST ALL-AMERICA BILL BRUNDIGE and both tackles from its defensive line. But sophomore Dennis Nealon is considered a worthy replacement for Brundige, and Herb Orvis, the other end, may be the league's best. The Buffs return all their linebackers and all but one of their deep backs.

By the time Nebraska clobbered Oklahoma (44-14) and Georgia, the Cornhuskers "were the strongest offensive team we've had," Devaney says. Only four starters return from that unit, but Devaney concedes, "if we can find a tight end and center, we may be as good or better this year."

The returnees responsible for Devaney's optimism are the alternating pair of slick quarterbacks, Van Brownson and Jerry Tagge; tailback Jeff Kinney, Big Eight sophomore-of-the-year, and fullback Dan Schneiss.

In addition, Devaney will welcome tailback Joe Orduna, 1968 ace who was sidelined with a knee injury last year, and a much-heralded sophomore flyer, Johnny Rodgers, who reminds some observers of Gale Sayers.

NEBRASKA NEVER HAD SO MUCH BACKFIELD DEPTH. Devaney may alternate Kinney and Orduna in what he visualizes as a 1-2 punch comparable to Oklahoma's pair of Owens and Ron Shotts, who in 1967 alternated and were 1-2 in conference rushing statistics. Also back is split end Guy Ingles, small but excellent receiver and punt returner.

Tackle Bow Newton is the only returning starter in the offensive line. All-conference linebacker Jerry Murtaugh, tackle Dave Walline and cornerback Jim Anderson are the only returning starters on defense.

But Devaney says, "I think we can rebuild both our lines fairly well. Our problem is the secondary. We lost three starters and we won't have any experience at those spots. We will need something to help us offset the exploiting we will get back there."

Missouri returns 10 starters, five from each unit, and has representative lines. The defense will be made tougher by the return of Rocky Wallace, 1968 all-conference tackle who was sidelined last year with a leg injury. Wallace and end Mike Bennett will spearhead the defensive line, and 260-pound Laron Jackson will be the mainstay of the offensive line. But the new defensive backs worry Devine.

THE BRAWNY MOORE, A CONVERTED LINEMAN, might be an Owens-type work-horse. But this will not be needed if 238-pound fullback James Harrison, outstanding as a sophomore, makes a comeback from a leg injury.

If the Tigers find a passer, they have home run receivers in All-America Mel Gray and his fast understudy, John Henley. Leading quarterback candidates are Chuck Roper and Mike Farmer.

Oklahoma's defensive collapse (6-4)—the Sooners yielded 147 points in landslide losses to Kansas State, Missouri and Nebraska—was most noticeable against passing, and sent Fairbanks' staff to the drawing boards. The result will be a new look on both defense and offense.

Oklahoma will be sophomore-junior in makeup, and possibly a year away from being a contender. Back are nine defensive starters, but no proven standout, and plenty of question marks.

Of five offensive starters, only quarterback Jack Mildren is secure in his job. The offensive line could wind up loaded with sophomores, and the backfield will likely start two sophomores.

"We're certainly an unknown," Fairbanks says, "but it's quite possible that we could wind up with a fine team, because some of our young players are very gifted."

OKLAHOMA WILL SHIFT OFFENSIVE GEARS to take advantage of the multi-talented Mildren. There will be more and better passing, because of the new receivers. The running attack will have more speed, but less power, if Roy Bell, who was off to a flashy start before an ankle injury eliminated his effectiveness at midseason, and the super fast Wylie, or equally fast Everett Marshall, are the starters.

Kansas returns its entire offensive backfield and might be significantly improved if Pepper Rodgers regains his magic touch with quarterbacks. Last year was Rodgers' first experience with ineffectual quarterbacking.

Kansas will try to rebound with junior college transfer Dan Heck at QB. The remainder of the backfield is set with fullback John Riggins, all-conference in '68, wingback Willie Amison and tailback Ron Jessie, who may be used chiefly as a flanker. KU's backs rival K-State's for speed.

TIGHT END LARRY BROWN is the key operative in a big but green offensive line that will be enhanced by bright receiving prospects. The defensive unit returns seven starters.

Oklahoma State's surprise showing netted conference coach-of-the-year honors for Floyd Gass in his first season. The Cowboys return 14 starters, RELUCTANT CHAIRMAN—Kansas State's flashy quarterback, Lynn Dickey, is forced into an involuntary sitting posture by Penn State's John Ebersole, who has him by the ankle, as Steve Smear (76) assures the situation. Nittany Lions just got by, 17-14.

EXPRESSWAY—Thanks to some stout blocking by his teammates, Missouri's Joe Moore breezes through middle of Nebraska line for an eight-yard gain. Tiger offense ripped through Cornhusker resistance, 17-7, enroute to Orange Bowl meeting with Penn State.

but lost three all-conference defenders, All-America offensive tackle John Ward and quarterback Bob Curburth, and could surprise again, if Tony Pounds or Johnny Bullard measure up as passers.

OSU may have the best set of ends in the conference in Hermann Eben and Tom Dearing, plus a game-breaker in tailback Bobby Cole. The defense will be weaker. Fullback James Williams, among the league's best sophomores, and flankerback Dick Graham, plus Cole, give Cowboys the fastest backfield since they joined the Big Eight.

IOWA STATE RETURNS NINE STARTERS from an offensive unit which disappointed coach Johnny Majors last year. Key to the improvement is quarterback, where Obert Tisdale will be challenged by sophomores George Amundson and Bill Miller. Best of the Cyclone veterans is split end Otto Stowe. Safety Tony Washington is the ranking defender.

In the Missouri Valley, Memphis State, unbeaten in its first two seasons in the conference, is expected to keep on its blazing trail.

The Tigers have a deluxe stable of running backs, featuring tailback Paul Gowen, last year's sophomore-of-the-year, and fullback Ray Jamieson, who was all-Valley in 1968 but missed last year with a leg injury. Halfback Jay McCoy is another returning starter.

Memphis is excited over sophomore flanker Gerald Tinker, an All-America schoolboy who tied two world indoor sprint records.

Sophomore redshirts Steve Leech and Al Harvey will contend at quarterback. The veteran offensive line has all-conference performers in center John Bomer and tackle Mike Stark. All-conference linebacker John Allen and cornerback Charles Babb are the only returning starters on defense.

LOUISVILLE, WHICH SURPRISED under rookie coach Lee Corso, returns 15 starters, seven on offense, eight on defense.

Gary Inman, an emergency choice at quarterback last year, will be returned to cornerback, his normal position, if rookie QBs John Madeya and George Yokitis are as capable as Corso believes. They will direct a faster, but less powerful, attack built around fullback Bill Gatti and some promising sophomore ends. Louisville's defense may be improved because of sophomore linebacker Tom Jackson, an outstanding prospect.

North Texas lost other talented seniors besides Ramsey. Included were nine offensive starters. Four products of a winless freshman team are likely to start, including quarterback Tommy Nelson. Cautious Rod Rust concedes Nelson has potential as a passer. The Eagles return six defensive leaders, the best being cornerback Leonard Dunlap. Safety Ret Little, '68 starter who missed last year, also returns. The defense may be comparable to last year.

Tulsa, which drowned in a tidal wave of knee injuries in Vince Carillot's first season, returns 12 starters. The 'Canes will be counting heavily on veteran QB Johnny Dobbs.

Tailback Josh Ashton and tight end Jim Butler are among Valley's best. So are defenders Luke Blair, linebacker, and Chuck Cummins, tackle and Dick Blanchard, linebacker.

The news at Wichita is that for the first time in four years the Shockers don't have a new coach. Ben Wilson says, "I've got some of my kind of football players now," and vows to have a sharply improved team.

Quarterback and the defensive line are the trouble spots. Wilson thinks the improvement will be significant elsewhere. Sophomores will dominate both units. Runners Marvin Brown, Lou Tabor and Don Gilley and wide receiver John Duren "all have a chance to be great players," Wilson says.

One school MVC teams won't have to worry about is Cincinnati, which has dropped out of the conference.

There will be a lot of talent returning in the MIAA in 1970 with co-champions Northeast Missouri State and Southeast Missouri battling it out with Central Missouri for league honors.

Central Missouri showed an abundance of young backs in '69 and will return two-time all-conference quarterback Steve Eckinger. Southeast and Northeast each return all-league selections in the backfield.

Don Cummings, who quarterbacked Northeast Missouri to one of its most successful seasons in recent years and shared all-conference laurels with Eckinger, also returns.

Southwest Missouri and the University of Missouri at Rolla will be more experienced after fielding young squads in 1969.

North Dakota State, the nation's No. 1 College Division team for the past two years and winner of six straight North Central Conference titles, has a problem. The mighty Bison lost 10 offensive starters. It may not be enough, however, to keep them from winning title No. 7.

Ron Erhardt's crew may have lost some offensive sting but there are seven defensive starters back among 25 lettermen. The top returnees are Joe Cichy, a Little All-America, defensive tackles Dick Hanson and Paul Bothof and all-NCC offensive tackle Dan Green.

Northern Iowa could make a run at the Bison. Coach Stan Sheriff has 22 veterans back including all four offensive backs, the league's top punter in Mike Butler and its two top receivers, Larry Skartvedt and Randy Ruisch.

South Dakota State keeps its entire backfield among 27 returnees. The Jack-rabbits must rebuild the defensive line. Max Sinclair is the top back; Chuck Kavanagh and Jim Kempainen the best of the veteran defensive backfield returning intact.

North Dakota promises an explosive attack behind the passing of Mike Conner. Dan Martinsen heads the defensive unit. Talented sophomores are quarterback Jay Gustafson and end Sheldon Joppru.

South Dakota coach Joe Salem should have a strong running attack with Steve Pelot and Bob Koch, a question mark at quarterback and an improved defense with six starters back, headed by linebacker Paul Nelson.

Versatile Mike Junck, a triple threat quarterback, heads 30 returnees at Morningside. He's backed by an exciting runner in Dave Bigler and plenty of speed in his receiving corps, with both Steve Schroeder and Bill Asprey back.

Augustana has 29 lettermen, including 10 defensive starters but big problems on offense. Key defensemen are middle guard Jon Gapa and Mike Daly. Veterans Dennis Comstock at tight end and Paul Colon, tackle, also return.

SWC Foes Yearn To Thwart Replay Of Texas-Arkansas TV Title Match

By BURLE PETTIT

*Executive Sports Editor, The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal
Director, Football Writers' Association of America*

The forward pass was only 63 years old when Darrell Royal pronounced it functional. Previously, his observation that "When you pass only three things can happen—and two of them are bad" had become the most quoted line since "... but how you played the game."

When Darrell's Texas team finally did throw, it not only threw on fourth and three, trailing by six, but threw to a receiver almost hidden beneath the close scrutiny of two defenders. To say Texas needed all this, plus several yards more, to beat Arkansas in one of the most dramatic games of football's first 101 years would be to belabor history.

TO SAY, WITH TONGUE REMOVED FROM CHEEK, that it was the first time Texas ever threw the ball would be to sacrifice fact for fancy under the guise of poetry. Nevertheless, to ignore the 1969 production of Texas vs. Arkansas would be aside from the purpose of this prospectus, simply because all signs point to more of the same in 1970.

All this is to the consternation of six other Southwest Conference schools which watched the two football powers dominate the league during the 1960s. To them, this is a heckuva way to start a new decade.

Only the video brass isn't complaining. Last year, their anticipated climax for all football came off to absolute perfection—President Nixon as its witness — as the biggest show biz hit since Sound of Music.

SO THEY HAVE rewritten the script for 1970, Arkansas and Texas approved it, and that leaves only the remainder of the SWC to botch it up. That isn't likely, insist the seers who once more have charted the first weekend in December as title day. But it is possible.

Success wears the pattern for all imitators, and perhaps because it was Texas and Arkansas that

In football-lovin' west Texas, Burle Pettit of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal takes a back seat to no one in his devotion to the game, going so far as naming two of his sons after Southwest Conference gridiron immortals Kyle Rote and Donny Anderson.

Pettit played football in high school, too, and says of that experience, "Wasn't much good then but, aided by a poor memory, I get better with each passing year."

The North Texas State graduate writes the lead sports column for the A-J and has been covering Southwest Conference football eight of his 10 years with the newspaper.

COLLISION COURSE—Texas Christian ball carrier Bobby Davis (41) and Arkansas linebacker Lynn Garner (53) are about to have a violent meeting of the minds in Southwest Conference encounter at Little Rock, Ark., that returned Razorbacks 24-6 victors.

introduced artificial turf to the league, there was almost a rush on the fake grass industry before the first thumb print popped up on the Longhorns' national championship trophy. Texas Tech, Texas A&M, SMU and Rice all will kick off the coming season on some sort of imitation lawnery. This isn't expected to be sufficient improvement to bridge the gap. But, in the inimitable words of H. Ross Perot, "you gotta start somewhere."

TEXAS RETURNS ALMOST GREEDILY from its national title team. An All-American, fullback Steve Worster is among the returnees, and that's before you've even mentioned such people as halfback Jim Bertelsen, split end Cotton Speyrer, defensive ends Bill Atessis and Bill Zapalac, linebacker Scott Henderson, Forest Wiegand and on and on.

There also were losses, such as All-America Bob McKay at offensive tackle, Ted Koy at halfback, Randy Peschel (who caught the dramatic fourth down pass against Arkansas) at tight end, Fred Steinmark and Tom Campbell in the secondary, and Glen Halsell and Mike Campbell at line-backers. These losses likely will be absorbed. And the only question mark looming over Texas aspirations for a successful encore is supported by one loss whose solution is not quite so obvious.

The Longhorns have won 20 straight, including back-to-back victories in the Cotton Bowl. And you mark that winning streak from Oct 5, 1968—the day Royal handed to James Street the quarterbacking reins and pointed toward the Promised Land.

TO APPRECIATE PROPERLY the role Street played in the Steer success story, you must first go back to that day—three games deep into the 1968 season—and chart the Longhorns in both directions.

Looking backward, the scene is not backgrounded by championship music. Quite to the contrary, Texas had finished 6-4 three consecutive times and now stood 0-1-1 after a tie with Houston and a loss to Texas Tech. The third game of the season was against Oklahoma State. Street took over at quarterback and the Longhorns haven't lost since. Rarely have they been seriously extended.

ROYAL'S PROBLEM IS AS OBVIOUS as the horns on Bevo's head: Come up with another winner at the throttle. There are two prime candidates, junior Eddie Phillips and sophomore Gary Keithley. Phillips lettered behind Street last season and Keithley is an ultratalented product from last year's freshman crop.

Phillips, due to his national championship experience (29 passes, 14 completions, 217 yards, one touchdown; 50 rushes, 270 yards, 30 points), will draw first consideration for the position.

"It will be Eddie's job unless Keithley can take it away from him," says Royal. "He has sung with this band, and Gary hasn't."

That's not to say Keithley can't. A couple of years ago, he was among the most highly touted schoolboy prospects in the state. And by the time he chose Texas, Gary had sifted through more than 50 offers.

Both Keithley and Phillips have the physical attributes of speed, quickness and passing range and accuracy. And should one of them match Street in that charismatic abstraction of leadership . . . well, that same Orange sky of last year appears to be the only limit.

ARKANSAS RETURNS ITS WINNER AT THE HELM, Bill Montgomery, and his pass-snagging sidekick, Chuck Dieus. And many are those who insist this talented tandem is sufficient cause to believe the Razorbacks will accomplish in 1970 what they missed by the weight of a fingertip catch in '69.

Montgomery completed 93 passes last season, nine of them for touchdowns. Dieus caught 42 of them, four for touchdowns.

Montgomery is probably the most dreaded double-threat man to hit the

WE'RE THE CHAMPS, CHA-CHA-CHA—That's Texas' Bobby Mitchell (64) doing undignified dance-for-joy as fullback Steve Worster falls across goal line for winning TD against Arkansas. Longhorns took President Nixon's national title trophy, 15-14.

SWC in years, and there's no reason to believe his senior season won't be his greatest. Dicus already has garnered All-America recognition and Frank Broyles sees the fancy-footed receiver's trend holding up.

These two lads won't have to do it alone, either. Returning also in the Arkansas backfield is bruising runner Bill Burnett.

FLANKER JOHN REES ALSO RETURNS, which means the only backfield loss is fullback Bruce Maxwell. His replacement appears obvious in the form of Russ Garber, who stood out while playing behind Maxwell last season.

Rebuilding the offensive line and replacing two linebackers seem to be Broyles' major problems.

If you say it fast, it doesn't sound like much. Consider, however, that one of the linebackers is Cliff Powell, the other is Lynn Garner and the offensive linemen are four of the best starters Broyles has had in those positions, and it sounds a little more serious.

Still, quality players are plentiful. In addition to Burnett, Montgomery and Dicus, such fellows as offensive tackle Mike Kelson and defensive back Jerry Moore appear as candidates for national recognition.

The rest of the league shapes up as a real dogfight for the spoils. Tech, A&M, Rice, TCU and SMU all have some promise, and Baylor can go nowhere but upward from the 0-10 mark it had in '69.

TECH HAS A BRAND NEW COACH in Jim Carlen, who moved in from a success story at West Virginia to replace J. T. King.

In replacing King, who moved up to athletic director, Carlen inherits many of the same plusses and minuses that kept Tech void of consistency a year ago. Yet, if the green offensive line responds to the year of experience, the Raiders could be the most likely candidate to challenge the co-monopoly at the top of the ladder.

GALLOPING GUARD—Southern Methodist defensive guard Pat O'Connell essays the role of an elusive halfback, after intercepting Texas Tech pass from arm of Charles Napper. Jaunt ended after 18 yards, however, enabling Tech to nip Mustangs, 27-24.

IN THE CLUTCH, Texas halfback Jim Bertelsen sprints away from grasping reach of Oklahoma defender Albert Qualls, to cross goal line for touchdown that helped national title-bound Longhorns achieve their 41st triumph over Sooners by 27-17 score.*

Charles Napper, who showed flashes of greatness as a parttime starter last year, appears to have a headlock on the quarterbacking job. His only challengers appear to be redshirt soph Mike Nicolle and Greg Waters.

Defense may again be Tech's strongest point. Returning are such stand-outs as linebacker Larry Molinare, end Bruce Dowdy, cornerback Jerry Watson and tackle Bob Mooney.

Behind Napper in the backfield will be returning starters Danny Hardaway and fullback Miles Langehennig. In Tech's new offensive scheme, the veer, an improved front line and depth in quality running backs should give the Raiders much of the "oomph" they lacked last year.

Texas A&M had the league's best sophomores last year and, with a year of aging, could put the Aggies back into the running. Graduation of tailback Larry Stegent, a first rate running back, and the tragic death of defensive end Mike DeNiro pose the major problems.

Rocky Self returns at quarterback, but he may be hard-pressed to hold his job when pushed by sophomore Lex James, an outstanding triggerman off last season's successful freshman team. Marc Black is back at fullback, where he was a star last season as a soph. Dave Elmendorf, a defensive back, is a bona fide candidate for all-star honors. Should quarterbacking jell, A&M certainly could be classed as a contender.

SMU, with Chuck Hixson—the greatest passer in the league's history—and speedy receiver Gary Hammond back on the airways, is always a dreaded opponent. Coach Hayden Fry, should he field a consistent rushing threat, could surprise prognosticators as he did two seasons back.

Hixson will be supported offensively by Hammond and Ken Fleming, the best tight end in the league, in addition to tackle Bill Jackson and halfback Gordon Gilder. A running threat and the kind of pass blocking that helped Hixson & Co. in 1968 could come from Walter Hayner.

FOR YEARS, TCU SEEMED TO BE only a quarterback away from greatness. Last year the Frogs found their elusive dream in Steve Judy, who was sensational as a sophomore. Now, they are looking for adequate support. Coach Fred Taylor lost 29 seniors, and likely will field the youngest team in the league. Top newcomers include soph running back Raymond Rhodes, voted top frosh in the conference. TCU's top candidate for all-star honors is center John Ruthstrom (6-3, 245), who'll be starting for the third year. The Frogs have size, but lack of experience suggests they still are a year away.

Stahle Vincent and Phillip Wood are back to continue their bout for Rice's quarterbacking job, and the Owls return such standouts as all-conference guard Roger Roitsch, soph-of-the-year Rodrigo Barnes—who is equally devastating at defensive end or linebacker—and tailback Mike Spruill from a team that finished last year and has great promise this season.

RICE COULD BE a first-division prospect.

Baylor dipped to a new low last season as injuries and a new system became incompatible. Three quarterbacks—Si Southall, Laney Cook and Steve Stuart—all return, and from that trio the Bears should be able to find proper direction. Depth and lack of experience, however, may keep Baylor locked in the cellar for another season.

As sure as Texas and Arkansas, the top independent in the section is Houston. The Cougars, who shucked a slow start and came on strong a year ago, are expected to rank among the nation's finest again.

Coach Bill Yeoman greets 15 starters from the team that rapped Auburn, 36-7, in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl last year, and among them is Gary Mullins, quarterback, and his favorite target, split end Elmo Wright.

Despite a tough schedule, it should be another banner year for the Cougars.

WEST TEXAS STATE MUST COME UP with a replacement for top running back Duane Thomas. But that's not coach Joe Kerbel's only problem. He must count on his starting quarterback, Clarence Redic, regaining academic eligibility during summer school, and find replacements for a graduation-riddled secondary. Ramese Falafine, a 210-pound Samoan, seems the best bet to fill Thomas' shoes.

However, all indications suggest a rebuilding campaign for Kerbel's troops.

Arkansas State's soundness and Abilene Christian's aerial circus keyed to Jim Lindsey should provide the major impact in the Southland Conference.

Arkansas State, titlist two straight years, returns a bulk of its 1969 forces, including an all-sophomore backfield led by quarterback James Hamilton and the league's top two rushers, Calvin Harrell and Marshall Walls.

Lindsey, a senior, has gained 5,814 yards passing, completing 444 of 868 attempts for 39 touchdowns. His fine receivers, split end Ronnie Vinson and flanker Pat Holder also return, along with every offensive starter.

University of Texas at Arlington must rebuild its backfield and defensive fringes, but much talent is in the Rebel camp, headed by tackles Don Morrison and Philip Berry and linebacker Fred Bolton.

Trinity had a fast '69 finish, sparked by soph quarterback Leonel Garza, and could surprise. Top-regarded performers are ends Walt Huntley and Shawn Meagher, and linebacker Bruce Jackson.

Lamar Tech still has running back worries. Quarterback Tommy Tomlin, split end Ronnie Gebauer and tackle Gary Crockett are the brighter personnel.

In 1969, it was the year of the Alcorn Braves. In 1970 it may be the year of the Cat. Southern's Jaguars, and the Texas Southern and Grambling Tigers will all be in the thick of the conference race.

Alcorn lost Marvin Weeks, quarterback, and his pet receiver, Oscar Martin, who was killed in a tragic accident. Most of the defense is gone, too.

Grambling is loaded and must be regarded the team to beat. Stars are Frank Lewis, leading scorer the past two years, Willie Armstrong, Billy Manning at center and Richard Harris, defensive end.

Texas Southern has quarterback David Mays and the team with the best QB usually wins the league title. Mays hit on 116 of 205 last year for 13 TDs and a 153.7 yards average. He has his favorite target back in Ike Jefferson.

Southern climaxed a great '69 season by downing Grambling, 21-17. The defense provided the glue last year but now the offense must get untracked.

Prairie View, Jackson State and Mississippi Valley have bright spots and will give the leaders trouble.

Arkansas AM&N has exited to join the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference.

The Rocky Mountains [NCAA District 7]

Swift Sun Devils, Champs At Last, Get Kiss-Of-Death Favorite's Role

By VERNE BOATNER

Sports Editor, The Arizona Republic

Director, Football Writers' Association of America

The wild and rowdy Western Athletic Conference has developed such a reputation for highly improbable finishes that a Mission Impossible ending should surprise no one. The kiss-of-death favorite's role belongs to Arizona State, finally the defending champion.

The Sun Devils, who have turned out perhaps more great football players than any other WAC team, had never won the title in the league's previous seven years of existence.

But they did it in what was considered a rebuilding year in 1969, as amazing Utah stumbled in the stretch.

THREE TEAMS WERE IN THE SADDLE at one time or another in the furious race that marked the area's centennial celebration.

Wyoming, gunning for its fourth straight title, was the early leader. But just when it appeared that the high-riding Cowboys were destined to permanently pollute the Rocky Mountain environs, the black protest movement felled them.

After coach Lloyd Eaton dismissed 14 black gridders, the Cowboys dropped their final four games and Utah vaulted to the front.

But in a pivotal late-season game at Arizona, the Utes missed a vital extra point and fell, 17-16. That opened the door for Arizona State to crush Arizona in the season finale and win the title.

Arizona Republic columnist Verne Boatner claims to be the world's greatest lover of football.

"Give it to me morning, noon and night seven days a week," he avers.

The Texas native is especially familiar with the type of game played in the Western Athletic Conference, which he has followed since its founding in 1962. Boatner covered members Arizona State and Arizona before assuming duties as sports editor-columnist of The Republic.

An alumnus of the University of Texas, the Arizona scribe toiled briefly for newspapers in the Longhorn State before Uncle Sam called him into the service.

THE LEAGUE'S unpredictability was underscored by Arizona State's early season loss, 24-23, to Utah, the Utes' slip at Arizona and A-State's 38-24 decision over Arizona.

Wyoming had won 20 of its last 21 conference games when Arizona State started the Cowboys on their losing skid with a 30-14 setback.

That Arizona-Arizona State game may determine the champion again.

While Arizona State is bulging with veterans (32) that include 16 returning starters and six all-conference performers, the Wildcats are solid with 33 lettermen.

Little Dave Buchanan, one in a series of great minibacks for the Sun Devils, returns to defend his rushing crown. Quarterback Joe Spagnola to split end Calvin Demery will be a familiar passing combination.

And fleet wingback J. D. Hill, who sat out last year on disciplinary probation, was the sensation of spring practice.

CHIEF OFFENSIVE LOSS was record-breaking fullback Art Malone. Senior Hugh McKinnis, Oscar Dragon and burly sophomore Brent McClanahan are battling for the vacancy.

Defensive end Junior Ah You and middle guard Ted Olivo head a solid-looking if unspectacular defense.

Other all-conference performers on coach Frank Kush's most experienced team in 13 seasons are tackle Mike Tomco (who has shifted to center) and guard Gary Venturo.

Quarterback Brian Linstrom, fullback Willie Lewis and super-sophomore Joe Petroskus, a 195-pound halfback, should provide plenty of fireworks for the University of Arizona.

Defensively, end Bill McKinley, linebacker Mark Arneson and safety Justin Lanne are all-conference timber. Several promising sophomores must come through for the Wildcats to be contenders.

ANOTHER BACK-BREAKING SCHEDULE, that lists Michigan, Iowa and Air Force could pose problems, but the 'Cats have more depth to cope with it.

Utah lost eight defensive starters and quarterback Ray Groth, but coach Bill Meek expects to be in the thick of the fight.

Exciting redshirt Gordon Longmire will replace Groth and he will have the team's top four receivers back to throw to, including all-conference tight end Dale Nosworthy and split end Jimmy Brown. Billy Hunter and Fred Graves handle ground duties.

WHITE GLOVE OCCASION—Colorado State U's soph halfback, Lawrence McCutcheon, isn't wearing gloves for fashion reasons, nor to impress rival Ron Hill (81). He's just trying to keep hands warm in Laramie, Wyo., where Wyoming froze CSU, 39-3.

TOO LATE—Tardy (in the end zone) tackle try by Utah's Craig Smith (41) is ignored by Arizona State's 9.5 sprinter, Dave Buchanan, completing 15-yard scoring dash—his second TD of game. Utes won, 15-14, then Sun Devils edged Redskins for WAC title.

All-America candidate Norm Thompson, who set an NCAA record for interception return yardage (five for 253), Joe Petricca and Randy Hansen are the only proven defensive veterans.

DEPLETED WYOMING, with four offensive and four defensive starters, has turned to junior college transfers. Returnees quarterback Ed Synakowski, tailback Frosty Franklin and fullback Jeff Howe form the nucleus of a good attack, but the line is suspect.

The Cowboys figure to employ the services of the nation's top kicker, Bob Jacobs, even more frequently.

A rugged defense, anchored by end Chris Farasopoulos—who also led the nation in punt returns—puts Brigham Young in a darkhorse category.

Tailback Kip Jackson, the Cougars' top rushing and receiving threat, and fullbacks Eddie Nichols and Chris Reading will be joined by sophomore quarterback Dave Coon, who teamed with split end Golden Richards for seven freshmen passing records.

New Colorado State coach Jerry Wampfler inherits 37 lettermen.

THINGS SHOULD BE LOOKING UP for the 4-6 Rams, who lost three games last year by a total of four points. Six-foot-six quarterback Chip Maxwell and Lawrence McCutcheon, who rewrote all school rushing records despite missing two games with a broken hand, and leading receiver Harry Stevenson key the offense. Safety Paul Duda and tackle Dan Hudson pace a veteran defensive unit.

New Mexico (4-6) may be on the way back, thanks to versatile quarterback Rocky Long, who started seven games as a sophomore and led the team in passing, punt returns, kickoff returns and was second in rushing. Fullback Sam Scarber handles running duties and tackle Rod Wallace, line-backer Houston Ross and safety Jay Morrison are top defensive personnel for the Lobos, who lost only five seniors.

TICKLISH SPOT?—Flanker Ernie Jennings of the Air Force Academy does seem to be titulating the football before grabbing it for a touchdown against Utah State—one of national-record-tying five scoring passes he caught in Falcons' 38-13 blitz.

The University of Texas at El Paso must completely rebuild its offensive line but has quarterback Bill Craig and the WAC's top two receivers, Ed Puishes and Billy Taylor. Nine defensive starters and a strong freshman group could bolster Miner hopes.

AMONG THE INDEPENDENTS, Air Force appears headed for another strong season. Thirteen starters return, including senior flanker Ernie Jennings, tailback Curtis Martin and linebacker Phil Bauman. The Falcons have 26 lettermen from the 6-4 team last season.

Defensive back Cyd Maattala, offensive guard Virgil Staponski and punt-er-defensive halfback Scott Hamm are top hands.

New Mexico State feels it has the man to surpass Steve Owens' all-time National Collegiate rushing record in Ron James. The 6-0, 195-pound tailback needs only 1,396 yards rushing with the offensive-minded Aggies.

The Aggies' backfield returns intact, in fullback Bill Byrd, quarterback Rhett Putman and receivers Moody Jackson and Al Barnes.

But the group will have an inexperienced front line to work behind.

GRADUATION TOOK A HEAVY TOLL at Utah State, where seven offensive and eight defensive starters departed. But because of injuries last season, reserves gained extra experience.

Tailback John Strycula, who may be shifted to quarterback, is the key offensive weapon for the Utags. Bob Wicks should be the chief receiver.

Ray Child, another in a long line of superb defensive ends (Phil and Merlin Olsen, Bill Staley, Clark Miller, etc.), heads a spotty defense.

If transfer Tony Adams adapts to the quarterback slot, it will free Strycula to concentrate on his running abilities.

* Did not compete for conference title.

There are seven football-playing members in the expanded Big Sky Conference, but the University of Montana still should repeat as champion.

Boise State College and Northern Arizona University gained league membership during the winter and are eligible for the title.

Montana will have a potent backfield, led by fullback Les Kent and halfback Arnie Blancas, both all-league selections. Bob Fisher will be a capable replacement for Ray Brum at quarterback. Biggest chore is patching up the middle of the offensive line.

Weber lost 16 starters, but has back quarterback John Smith and running back Jack Brown. The Wildcats also have some top offensive linemen.

Idaho State pins its offensive hopes on Jerry Dunne, the Big Sky's best QB. The Bengals' defense must improve, however, if they're to move up.

Idaho has a fine collection of sophomores and juniors. But the Vandals will sorely miss the great pass catcher, Jerry Hendren, and quarterback Steve Olson, who must undergo surgery.

Montana State boasts more veterans than anyone in the league, but needs help at quarterback, running back and wide receiver. The defense looks solid.

Boise State could be the surprise team of the league. It will have a strong passing offense but the defensive line is suspect.

Northern Arizona's Lumberjacks have a relatively experienced quarterback, Jim Beckenhauer, but will be green at other spots.

Colorado State College appears to be headed for its second consecutive gridiron title in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference.

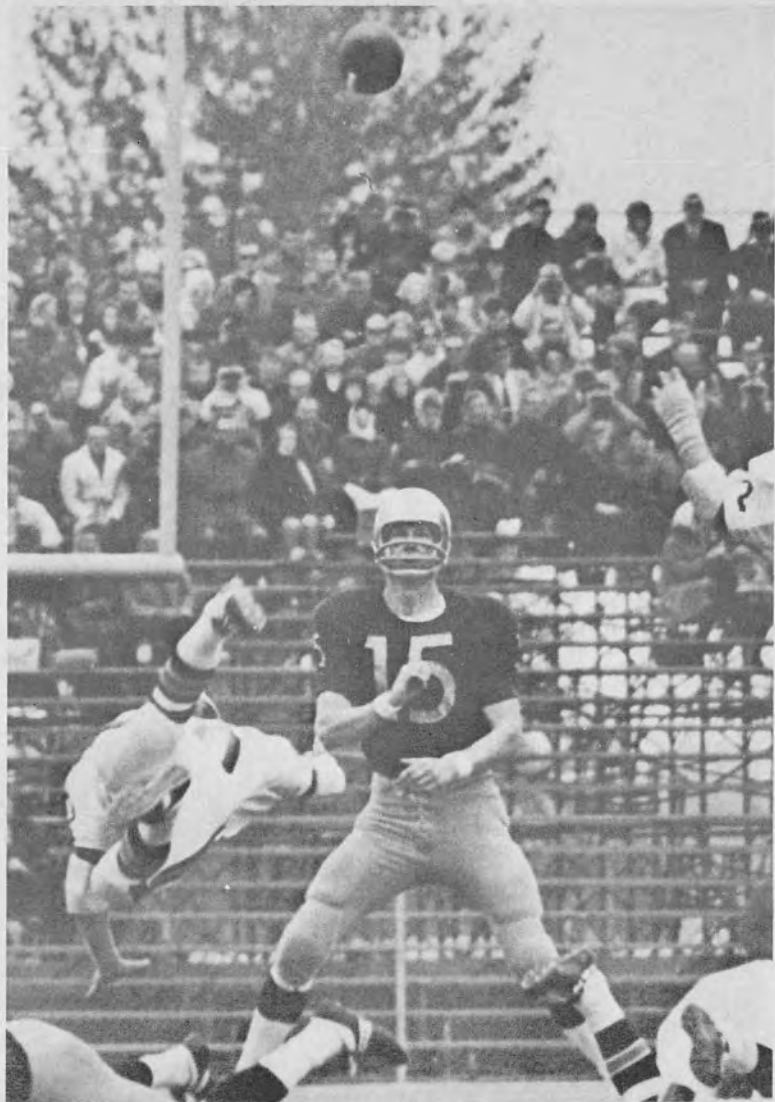

The Bears lost only six starters and, with normal replacements, should outdo principal contenders Emporia State, Pittsburg State and Southern Colorado for the Plains Division championship.

Colorado Western probably deserves a slight nod over Adams State, defending Mountain Division titlist, as the other leading prospect for the interdivision playoff.

Improved will be Colorado Mines, Fort Hays State, Fort Lewis College, Pittsburg State and Western New Mexico.

Trojans Must Outmuscle Stanford For Fifth Straight Rose Bowl Bid

By GEORGE PASERO

Sports Editor, The Oregon Journal

Director, Football Writers' Association of America

It will come as a surprise only in Peking, perhaps, that Johnny McKay is hoping to become the first football coach in the 102-year history of the sport to place a team in the Rose Bowl for five consecutive years.

If four trips in a row are good, then one more is one better.

Call that McKay thought. Not Mao thought.

The significance of football may escape the Chinese, McKay once speculated after a particularly galling loss—51 to 0 to Notre Dame.

Consoling Trojan backers, McKay ventured, "I'd say that 500 million Chinese don't even know we lost."

NOW, ONE CAN'T BE TOO SURE. Speculation has it that there are 700 million Chinese today, including some who know about the atomic bomb and some who have learned about the Trojans.

One rumor has it that McKay last fall received several letters postmarked Peking after his team's tie with the Irish.

So far the Trojan master resists opening the door to one of the world's most populous recruiting areas—Red China. After all, USC can recruit better than most without getting off a freeway. Didn't Michigan's Bo Schembechler insist USC had the "best material in the country?"

McKay was irritated. "What does he know about my guys?" he snapped.

A Beaver-Duck. That's what George Pasero, Oregon Journal sports honcho, calls himself after being a student at both Oregon State (the Beavers) and Oregon (the Ducks).

He still claims both universities by writing of their football and basketball exploits, a fact that "shakes up the partisans," he jests.

The native Oregonian joined the Journal in 1940 and was just getting to know his way around when Pearl Harbor was bombed midway through his city league touch grid game. He spent the next 49 months in the Navy; rejoined the Journal and became its sports editor in 1956. Pasero is married and has four children.

Then, as if to confirm Schembechler's contention, USC beat Bo's team in the Rose Bowl. And poor Bo wasn't on hand to defend himself.

THE DAY BEFORE he was to face the Trojans, Bo was bedded down, suffering a heart pain.

What he didn't see—but what the nation did—was a tremendous defense show by McKay's "Wild Bunch." Admitting the "Wild Bunch" was something else, McKay, after the game, offered it to President Nixon for his body guard.

Yes, the President called.

McKay does lose 13 seniors—including five from that defensive wall—and he so much likes to build with veterans for their leadership and drive.

BUT HE RETURNS HIS QUARTERBACK, the slim Jimmy Jones, hard-running halfback Clarence Davis, big fullback Charlie Evans and flanker Bob Chandler along with split receiver Sam Dickerson. With that crew, USC should score plenty. Last year, USC won on defense—the Wild Bunch.

McKay had said he would pass the ball around for several people to carry once O. J. Simpson graduated. It was a thought, anyway. What happened was that Davis began packing the ball as much as Simpson.

What's new, John, the boys asked. If nothing was new, some of it proved very effective. Mostly, that was the passing of Jones to hard-going Sam Dickerson or Chandler, before he was injured.

Two awesome linemen are John Vella, described by McKay as "one of the best prospects I've ever coached," and big tight end Gerry Mullins.

McKay also emphasizes his freshman team, for one of the few times. Two top rookies moving up are running back Sam Cunningham and tight end Charles Young.

THE TROJANS HAVE THEIR USUAL rugged schedule. Only it's even tougher. McKay lined up a "breather" for his 11th game, his opener—Alabama.

Still, the dawning of the second John McKay decade could be as spectacular as the closing of the first.

Ray Willsey, the University of California coach, thinks of USC and grimaces, "If you're thinking about going to the Rose Bowl, you'd better beat Los Angeles."

WHICH WAY'S THE GOAL LINE, FELLAS?—That's not smog in Indiana's stadium—it's gunsmoke from cannon fired by California students after their team (white jerseys) struck for six points. Conversion was delayed by smoke, but Bears prevailed, 17-14.

Stanford has to be co-favorite for Pasadena this year if only because Jim Plunkett is back at the Farm for a final season.

Plunkett came within three points of giving Stanford an unbeaten season a year ago. The Tribe's final record—7-2-1—still was the finest for a Stanford team since Chuck Taylor's 1951 Rose Bowl club.

THE INDIANS DROPPED a 36-35 thriller to Mike Phipps and Purdue early in the year, then saw a long-awaited win over USC slip away on Ron Ayala's field goal on the last play of the game. The Trojans won, 26-24.

Stanford later tied UCLA, 20-20, but that 12th straight loss to USC was galling and most costly.

Plunkett set so many Stanford records the statistician is still trying to figure them all out. He also set a bundle of Pac-Eight marks and he'll clean up most the rest this fall.

JOHN RALSTON, who has been building steadily, now has a record of 37-37-3. And, if he ever makes it to Pasadena, this is the year. He returns a defense of 11 vets and all but two offensive linemen.

The backfield is five deep in last season starters: Plunkett, Jackie Brown, Randy Vataha, Demea Washington and Hillary Shockley.

Center John Sande is back and so is Bob Moore, the third team All-America tight end, split end Jack Lasater and safety Jim Kauffman.

In fact, from one end of each line to the other, the Stanfords are strong and bristling.

THERE'S JUST NOTHING APOLOGETIC about Stanford this year.

In the North, it could be the "Year of the Duck," which means Oregon. Jerry Frei of the Webfoots and McKay are old coaching partners on the Oregon staff and the former delights in heating things up for his friend.

In 1968, USC and O. J. invaded Eugene and escaped by only 20-13. This time the Trojans again come North and Frei is ready—with a loaded gun.

His super sophs, receiver-runner Bobby Moore and linebacker Tom Graham, won all-Coast honors. Moore had 54 receptions for 786 yards and 10 touchdowns. He also carried for five other touchdowns and wound up with 92 points. Graham was unbelievable against Oregon State—24 tackles, 17 assists. This year, Frei says Moore will carry more as tailback in addition to flaring out for passes.

FACE OFF—California quarterback Dave Penhall (15) loses face when hit while attempting to pass by Stanford defensive tackle Dave Tipton. It was one of Penhall's few incompletions, as he lost brilliant air duel, 29-28, to Indians' Jim Plunkett.

SETTING THE CHARGE—A split second before the foe can interfere, Oregon State quarterback Steve Endicott prepares handoff to either Billy Main (22) or Dave Schilling (right) against Southern California, which blunted Beaver maneuvers, 31-7.

Oregon returns 31 lettermen and will bring up big, husky redshirt linemen to front QB Tom Blanchard, who has recovered from a knee operation.

Brilliant split end Bob Newland is back for another year and Oregon hopes Davey Jones, who sat out because of a knee injury, will prove as sensational as the predictions for him as a runner.

FREI IS THANKFUL he has Blanchard because:

"It will be the year of the quarterback in the Pacific-Eight, and that should make it an exciting race featuring offense. Everybody has a good QB and Jim Plunkett makes Stanford a favorite, along with USC."

Except that Tommy Prothro has a quarterback—a record-breaking one named Dennis Dummit—and the winning habit, one might discount UCLA.

After all, the Bruins lost 15 starters, including such top ones as Mike Ballou, George Farmer, Wes Grant, Greg Jones and Mr. Z (Zenon Andrusyshyn, the kicker). But Prothro is coming off a spectacular 8-1-1 season, has a 35-13-3 record for five years as UCLA boss, has Dummit and slick Mickey Cureton back and exudes optimism as always.

"There are so many holes to fill and so many uncertainties," says Prothro, "that it is hard to predict . . . but we expect to have a good football team."

LAST YEAR THE BRUINS were three points away from the Rose Bowl.

But the team that forced that deficit—a 14-12 loss to USC, a 20-20 tie with Stanford—is the same one coming up strong again, with Oregon State and California around to also challenge.

Dummit and Cureton represent a lot of offense. Dennis completed passes for 1,963 yards and 15 touchdowns. Cureton netted 721 yards and six TDs as he averaged 6.58 yards a carry.

Other Bruin strengths: Safetyman Ron Carver, an exciting runner; junior center Dave Dalby, tackle Steve Preston, receivers Rick Wilkes and Brad Lyman and cornermen Doug Huff and Danny Graham.

Experienced second-liners are plentiful, too. The freeways that feed talent to USC do the same for UCLA.

THE OL' PUNKIN, as Dee Andros is fond of referring to himself, is no loser. Not even when he's rebuilding. Last year he had to come up with a new offensive line and mostly a new backfield (Billy Main was the lone returnee), so he still finished up strong at 6-4.

Andros' five-year efforts at little ol' Corvallis have produced a record of 32-17-1. Tommy Prothro didn't do better when he was at Oregon State. And Andros is flamboyant and very popular in Oregon country.

Dee has THE quarterback, too—Steve Endicott, who did a lot of maturing last year. He beat Washington with a 50-yard fling with 0:00 on the clock. He showed such poise that Andros went more to the pass than ever in his career. Before, he had always maintained that football was for the fullback to carry and the quarterback to run around and hand it to him.

DEE HAS THE FULLBACK, TOO—tall Dave Schilling, who carried for 635 yards. Offensively, the Beavers could start 11 junior lettermen. Also, Andros always has a few big, rugged men around waiting for a chance.

His problem is defensive replacements, but he has exceptional hands in tackle Craig Hanneman and linebacker Jack Faulkender.

The Beavers could be a year away, but Andros doesn't like waiting and Pac-Eight rivals will eye OSU as potentially a first-division finisher.

CENTER OF ATTENTION—All eyes (and cameras) are trained on San Diego State's record-breaking (18 TD catches) receiver Tom Reynolds, who is in the process of hauling in a pass he ran in for a touchdown during Aztecs' 58 to 32 rampage over Pacific.

This might be the year that University of California, Berkeley pad, finally gives Gov. Reagan something to applaud. Something as All-American as a winning football team.

Coach Ray Willsey managed a 5-5 team last year and lost a ding-dong aerial battle to Stanford, 29-28.

A RESPECTED FELLOW, Willsey is gaining on his ambition—and that of the “silent majority” pulling for him. His six-year record is 28-32-1, which is a distinct improvement on the 18-50-3 of his two immediate predecessors.

Willsey has two, not one, quarterbacks of considerable talent, and he hopes he's through playing quarterback roulette.

Last year, JC transfer Steve Curtis took the job away from Randy Humphries and led the team to three straight wins before a collarbone break sidelined him. Humphries tried again, then gave way to Dave Penhall.

Penhall got Cal two wins, had the Bears up on USC until the final moment and up on Stanford until the final minutes, igniting a 464-yard show.

Willsey also has strengthened up with a half dozen JC transfers and will add two super sophs (that's how they're listed).

One is Isaac Curtis, who could be the long distance runner Willsey has been looking for, and California hasn't had since Johnny Olszewski. At 6-1, 190, Curtis is strong and can move. He rushed for more than 100 yards in each freshman game. Cal thinks so much of Curtis that he's drawn No. 36, worn by Olszewski and Jackie Jensen.

THE OTHER SOPH STAR-TO-BE is linebacker Godwin Turk.

Cal will be big, strong again with such as 245-pound tackle Bob Richards, center Greg Hendren, linebacker Phil Croyle, tackle Sherm White and guard O. Z. White all rated of star quality.

AND STILL COUNTING—UCLA's dandy Dennis Dummit is still barking signals as he pivots to handoff to one of his backfield mates. After two years in a Long Beach City College uniform, Dummit quarterbacked the Bruins through an 8-1-1 1969 campaign.

OOOPS!—Oregon tailback Pat Veruitti (25) has a big hole opened for him against Washington, but he forgot one thing—the football, floating between him and Huskie defender. Ducks generally enjoyed better offensive execution, enroute to 22-7 conquest.

California will face a murderous schedule, however, with Oregon added as an 11th game to make it a round-robin of the Pac-Eight plus Texas, Indiana, Rice and San Jose State.

Any question about survival?

Jim Sweeney of Washington State is a joke-cracking, jovial Irishman who doesn't believe it should be his lot to suffer the way he did a year ago—last in the Pac-Eight (0-7) and 1-9 for the season.

So he launched "Operation Recruit." No fewer than 13 junior college transfers were roped in, 12 from California.

SWEENEY ALSO HAS 30 LETTERMEN and will boost that group with some impressive studs off an unbeaten frosh team, including 6-5, 225-pound tight end Jim Forrest and 6-2, 239-pound interior lineman Marc Pence.

But what Sweeney counts on most of all is a sophomore quarterback named Ty Paine, who is 6-3, 200, from Billings, Mont. If Paine can't get the job done, an incoming transfer named Hal Chealander has impressive credentials. He is 6-4, 206 and a second team JC All-America. Also, Jack Wigmore, from last year's team, is recovering from a knee operation.

Sweeney is elated over another transfer, running back Alonzo Brown.

He has some good ones from last year's team, too—notably Hugh Klopfenstein, 6-4, 228, at tight end, and Buzz Brazeau, 6-5, 255, at tackle, and all-Coast Lionel Thomas in the secondary.

Pullman observers rate the Cougars like this: Better size and speed than before, good numbers finally, excellent quarterbacking and the spirit that will be typically Sweeney—boundless. And if you can improve on boundless, just let the man get a win or two early.

AT SEATTLE, WHERE PRIDE, NOT WAVELETS, lapped the shores of Puget Sound when Husky football was mentioned, the word is "Go!"

Or, just make that "Go Up."

"We're hopeful that the addition of a strong freshman squad plus four JC transfers with tremendous speed and ability will give good strength to our club," says coach Jim Owens, the old Big Ten destroyer.

And the big talk is of transfer halfback Darrell Downey from Ventura JC. He led California JC players in rushing with 208 carries and 1,309 yards. Another JC transfer halfback is Dennis Applebury.

It's obvious that Owens wants punch to go along with good fullback Bo Cornell, the Huskies' leading rusher with 613 yards last year, and halfbacks Joe Bell and Ron Preston.

Washington has two experienced quarterbacks, both from the state of Oregon—Gene Willis and Steve Hanzlik, a fine split end in Ralph Bayard and a huge offensive front of Ernie Janet, 241; Rick Keely, 265, Tom Nelson, 255, and center Bruce Jarvis, 250.

The Huskies will have to replace such outstanding defensive performers as linebacker Clyde Werner, tackles Lee Brock and Rick Sharp and end Mark Hannah. But there are names and numbers about.

Like Washington State, UW was 1-9 at the end of last season. The Huskies did beat the Cougars in their finale.

But wagging the tail of the Pac-Eight isn't what Seattle football buffs feel is their thing. They're telling Owens that, too. And he's accepting the challenge to begin the climb back.

San Diego State was the PCAA pre-season pick last year and the Aztecs look like a good bet to make it two straight. Gone is the nation's total offense leader Dennis Shaw, but back-up man Brian Sipe returns.

The Aztecs have brought in Marv Owens, Larry Mitchell and John Merino to give SDS the explosive running game it has lacked in past years. San Diego also has record-setting receivers Tommy Reynolds and Tim Delaney. The veteran defense is headed by lineman Leon Van Gorkum.

Long Beach State and Pacific should battle the Aztecs for No. 1.

Pacific is blessed with a more complete offense, but has lost the bulk of its defense. Vet signal caller John Read is back as are standout guards Rick Lebherz and Steve Simondi and linebacker Bob Crawford.

Long Beach will build around Leon Burns, who led the NCAA College Division last year in rushing and scoring. Also around are top offensive guard Dick Freeman and defensive back Jeff Severson.

Fresno State's offense will feature the pitching-catching combination of Karl Francis to John Sexton and Gary Borham. The defense lost heavily, but returns Cleo McCutcheon, Gene Hansen, Tom Flangan and Carl Harris.

At Santa Barbara, quarterback Dan Rodriguez is back along with runners Steve Vermillion and Tom Sanchez and receivers Mike Williams and Bob Nunez. Defense could be a strong point with veterans Paul Thatcher and Ken Greenaway.

San Jose's defense may be the dominant factor again with linebacker Dave Chaney the main cog. Most of the offensive line has departed, but the Spartans still have QB Ivan Lippi and receiver Butch Ellis.

It'll be a real rebuilding job for Los Angeles State with fullback Bob Brown carrying most of the load. The Diablos also will feature Tyrone Fontenot.

With practically every school returning starting backfields intact, the 1970 FWC title winner could be the school which has the most up front.

Defending champion Hayward State returns top runners in Bernie Oliver, Bert Castelanelli and Bill Audino. Defensively, Hayward is strong with all-Coast players Rick Churchward and Bill McKenna forming a nucleus.

All-Coast selections Chauncey Turnbow and Dennis Scott, plus 26 other lettermen, make Chico State a contender.

Sacramento State's passing attack should be potent with Mike Lippi and Rick Bergstrom throwing to Tom Jones.

Humboldt State lost 12 starters but has running strength in Dan Walsh, Rich Stevenson and Lee Willis, who among them gained 1,709 yards in 1969.

San Francisco State, with 30 lettermen, including quarterback Will August and split end Leroy Barrow, expects better things.

New UC Davis coach Jim Sochor has rebuilding chores, and new member Sonoma State should find the going overwhelmingly rough.

Whittier's Poets will be seeking their fourth consecutive SCIC grid title in 1970. It can't be any closer than the third.

Whittier won the 1969 crown by edging Redlands, 15-14, on a 44-yard touchdown with 13 seconds left in the final game of the season.

The Poets lost heavily through graduation but coach John Godfrey still has plenty of talent returning, especially on defense.

This could be Redlands' year. The Bulldogs enjoyed a 7-2 mark and have three all-conference defensive stars back plus fullback Jim Porterfield. Occidental will try to rebound behind the league's top passer, Fred Tippet.

Claremont-Mudd's outlook looks bright with versatile Steve Endemano returning for his senior year. Pomona has its entire starting backfield back and could be tough with some help from the line.

Late Rally By No. 1 Longhorns Ruins First Irish Bowl Venture In 45 Years

By DAVE CAMPBELL

Sports Editor, The Waco (Tex.) News-Tribune Immediate Past President, Football Writers' Association of America

As a bare-bones item for the record book, it was simply a 21-17 football game, Texas defeating Notre Dame with a late fourth-quarter comeback and winning the annual Cotton Bowl battle in Dallas, Tex., on Jan. 1, 1970. But obviously it was much more than that.

It was the game of games on New Year's Day. It was the spotlighted, most talked-about showdown in college football's Centennial Year. It was college football's No. 1 team of 1969 versus the team that has been No. 1 more times than any other. It was Notre Dame, the most glamorous name in football, waking up the echoes, making its first bowl appearance since the unforgettable era of Rockne and the Four Horsemen in 1925.

IT WAS TEXAS GOING AFTER ITS 500TH VICTORY, it was James Street versus Joe Theismann, it was the classic confrontation of Longhorn thunder overland and Irish lightning overhead, witnessed by 73,000, and in the end it was the epic game in the 34-year history of the Cotton Bowl.

After trailing most of the way, Texas won it with a one-yard plunge by halfback Billy Dale with 1:08 left on the clock. But even then, it took an interception by Tom Campbell at the Longhorn 14-yard line with 29 seconds remaining to wrap it all up for Texas.

The Cotton Bowl struggle typified the pattern on New Year's Day. All the bowl games were tight, tense, in doubt deep into the fourth quarter.

Penn State, undefeated and ranked No. 2 and trying ever harder, used a rash of pass interceptions to subdue favored Missouri in the Orange Bowl,

10-3. Unbeaten, once-tied Southern California, defeated in the Rose Bowl on the first day of 1969 by Ohio State, began the new decade in the very same bowl by conquering Ohio State's proud vanquishers, the Michigan Wolverines, 10-3.

MISSISSIPPI USED quarterback Archie Manning's magic and an untypical breakdown in Arkansas' kicking game to upset the Razorbacks, 27-22.

Of the four SEC teams engaged in bowl competi-

Football is almost a year-around job for Dave Campbell, the veteran sports editor of the Waco News-Tribune. When not writing of the sport for the News-Tribune, Campbell is busy assimilating copy for his Texas and Arkansas football magazines, which he edits and publishes under the banner of Southwest Sports Publications, Inc.

Southwest Conference teams are his forte, especially the Bears of Waco's Baylor University, from where he received his college degree.

The 45-year old Texan has served as president of the Texas Sports Writers' Association, as well as the FWAA.

DON'T WORRY, I'LL CATCH YOU, indicates Houston linebacker Glen Graef to teammate Charles Ford (39), who has just batted away pass intended for falling Mickey Zofko of Auburn. Houston frustrated SEC Tigers in Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl game, 36-7.

tion against non-conference opponents, only Ole Miss went home happy. Colorado shelled Alabama, 47-33, in the Liberty Bowl, and Houston rolled over Auburn, 36-7, in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl. The worst defeat of all was reserved for Georgia. Nebraska routed the Bulldogs, 45-6, in the Sun Bowl. In the one bowl that was all in the SEC family, it was strictly nip-and-tuck—Florida 14, Tennessee 13 in the Gator Bowl. In the newest of the post-season classics, West Virginia defeated South Carolina, 14-3, in Atlanta's Peach Bowl. And Toledo outcounted Davidson in the year-end's highest scoring affair, 56-33, in the Tangerine Bowl.

NONE OF THE GAMES, HOWEVER, could quite match the Cotton Bowl either in dramatic overtones or high-stakes flavor. Underdog Notre Dame stormed to a 7-0 lead, then a 10-0 advantage. Although Texas eventually scored before halftime, cutting Notre Dame's lead to three points, it was a half that clearly belonged to the Irish.

It was still a 10-7 game going into the fourth quarter and then the lead changed hands three times. Street, calling often on bullish fullback Steve Worster (20 carries, 155 yards, the game's most valuable player offensively), directed his team 77 yards in 18 plays, all on the ground, for Texas' first upper hand. Theismann got that one back quickly with his second touchdown pass of the overcast afternoon.

Texas answered with the payoff, a torturous journey of 76 steps in 17 plays whose charm moment was when Street passed eight yards to Cotton Speyer, who made a grass-tops grab at the Notre Dame 2. Dale's short touchdown plunge and Campbell's late interception provided the clinchers.

IN THE TEXAS DRESSING ROOM, Darrell Royal accepted congratulations via telephone from President Richard Nixon and in person from former President Lyndon Johnson.

If Texas had lost, Penn State doubtless would have moved up to No. 1. Frustrated by the Dallas developments, the Nittany Lions went ahead and won in Miami anyway, using a ball-hawking defense sparked by All-American Dennis Onkotz and Mike Reid to stretch their unbeaten string to 30.

Joe Paterno's team got all its points within a 21-second span in the first quarter when Mike Reitz kicked a 29-yard field goal and Chuck Burkhart threw a 28-yard touchdown pass to Lydell Mitchell. Then the Nittany Lions started showing Missouri a thing or two about pass defense. They picked off seven Tiger aeriels and also recovered two Tiger fumbles. On the last interception, with 30 seconds left to play, their fans among the record Orange Bowl crowd of 78,282 set up a chant, "We're No. 1."

ANOTHER RECORD CROWD (103,878) was on hand in Pasadena, Cal., as Southern California's Trojans, making their fourth straight Rose Bowl appearance, handed Michigan its first defeat in five trips to the classic.

After the two teams had swapped field goals in the first half, the Trojans went ahead to stay in the third quarter as sophomore quarterback Jimmy Jones hurled a 33-yard scoring pass to end Bob Chandler. The Wolverines threatened several times in the late stages but were unable to crack The Wild Bunch, USC's fiery defensive platoon. Michigan played without Coach-of-the-Year Bo Schembechler, who was hospitalized the day of the game with a mild heart attack.

Ole Miss' Manning almost gave Arkansas coach Frank Broyles a heart attack the way he plundered the Razorback pass defense. Manning, voted the game's outstanding player, completed 21 of 35 passes for 273 yards and one touchdown and he ran 18 yards for another score. "If you look at the story of the game, you'll see just how good he is," said Broyles. His own ace, Bill Montgomery (17 completions for 340 yards), wasn't bad.

AUBURN DISCOVERED TO ITS SORROW just how aptly named Jim Strong is. The Houston Cougar tailback scored twice on runs of 12 yards and rushed for 184 yards personally as the one-point underdog Cougars won decisively as a record Bluebonnet crowd of 55,203 looked on.

Touchdowns were almost cheaper by the dozen in Memphis, where Colorado and Alabama had their own Big Shootout. Although the Buffs jumped off to a 17-0 lead, Alabama had a 33-31 lead going into the final period. But the Crimson Tide, in the final analysis, had no answer for All-America Bob Anderson, who rushed for three touchdowns and 254 yards.

Nebraska had almost too many guns to count against Georgia in the Sun Bowl. Paul Rogers kicked field goals of 50, 32, 42 and 37 yards and Jeff Kinney scored on an 11-yard run to give the Cornhuskers an 18-0 advantage in the first quarter and the rout was on.

FLORIDA WON ITS ONE-POINT Gator Bowl victory over Tennessee with a defense that was dazzling in the clutches. Linebacker Mike Kelley set the pace, scooping up a blocked Vol punt and racing eight yards for Florida's first touchdown and later grabbing an interception and recovering a fumble. The Gators, trailing by three points, went ahead to stay in the third quarter via a John Reaves to Carlos Alvarez nine-yard scoring pass.

West Virginia made its first and last bowl game under coach Jim Carlen (who later took up the coaching reins at Texas Tech) a winning one. The 14-3 difference was provided by sophomore back Eddie Williams, who gained 208 yards and gave the Mountaineers ball control on a rain-soaked field, as the elements defused South Carolina's dangerous passing attack.

Post-Season Scoring Binge Nets Six Winning Teams Average of 33 Points

By JON FOLEY

Promotion Director, National Collegiate Athletic Association

High scoring football was the rule rather than the exception in the six College Division Regional Football Championships sponsored by the NCAA last fall. Winning teams scored at least 27 points in all six of the games.

Randolph-Macon topped the list with a 47-28 victory over Bridgeport in the newly established Knute Rockne Bowl.

NORTH DAKOTA STATE beat Montana, 30-3, in the Camellia Bowl at Sacramento, Calif.; Arkansas State edged Drake, 29-21, in the Pecan Bowl at Arlington, Tex.; East Tennessee State thumped Louisiana Tech, 34-14, in the Grantland Rice Bowl at Baton Rouge, La.; Delaware beat North Carolina Central, 31-13, in the Boardwalk Bowl at Atlantic City, N.J.; and Wittenberg beat William Jewell, 27-21 in the initial Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl.

Jon Foley

Randolph-Macon, playing at Bridgeport, beat the home forces primarily through the running of the smallest man on the field, Howard Stevens, a 5-7, 165-pounder who scored on runs of 34, 23 and nine yards. Quarterback Doug Toan didn't rely solely on Stevens, going to the air for three more scores. Bridgeport also showed a fine offense, with Skip Rochette throwing for his team's four touchdowns.

IN THE STAGG BOWL, host Wittenberg had all it could handle before turning back William Jewell. The visiting Cardinals jumped in front, 14-0, on two short plunges by Bill Cantrell. Wittenberg fought back after its first string quarterback, Rocky Alt, was injured in the waning minutes of the first half. His sub, Bob Miller, scored a touchdown and led the team on TD drives of 40 and 37 yards in the third period.

North Dakota State, top-ranked team in the College Division, went to the air to thwart No. 2-rated Montana at Sacramento. Quarterback Bruce Grams completed 16 of 25 passes for 206 yards and one touchdown. He scored another six-pointer on a seven-yard run. Paul Hatchett, the Bisons' running star, carried only eight times for 21 of the 187 yards his team gained on the ground. Montana couldn't get any kind of offense mounted, scoring on a 33-yard field goal by Don Worrell.

DELAWARE SET A RUSHING RECORD of 373 yards in winning for the second straight year in the indoor Boardwalk Bowl. Dick Kelley was the key ground gainer with 124 yards in 14 carries, including a 34-yarder for the game's first score. North Carolina Central stayed in the game behind the passing of Herman Mathews and the catching of Julian Martin. Mathews threw a scoring pass to Ollis Carson to even the score early in the second period, and the teams seasawed until the final quarter when Delaware posted 15 points to wrap it up.

East Tennessee State didn't read Louisiana Tech's press clippings. Tech's vaunted offense, led by Terrific Terry Bradshaw, was jolted consistently throughout the afternoon. The Buccaneers dumped Bradshaw 12 times for 140 yards in losses and intercepted three passes. Bradshaw, however, picked himself off the ground to throw for 299 yards on 20 completions, including two touchdowns.

East Tennessee gained 419 total yards, with quarterback Larry Graham hitting for two scores. Gary Daughtry ran the ball well, gaining 106 yards, including a touchdown run of 62 yards. East Tennessee scored in every period, with two tallies coming in the final stanza.

Arkansas State dumped Drake with a second string quarterback. Bubba Crocker, who had thrown only six passes all year, had to come off the bench when starting QB Jim Hamilton was injured on the third play of the game. Crocker pitched for touchdowns of 75 and eight yards and hit pay-dirt himself on a five-yard run. The performance was good enough to earn him the Most Valuable Offensive Player Award.

Arkansas State moved into a 22-0 lead in the first half and it appeared the game would be a runaway. But Drake, an exciting come-from-behind team all season, roared back on the strong arm of Mike Grejbowski and the superb pass catching of Duane Miller. The two combined to set up two scores and Miller tallied once on a 51-yard pass.

ASU managed to mount an offensive drive in the fourth period, culminating it on Calvin Harrell's three-yard plunge, to put the game out of reach.

The four established bowls will be back in the same spots this fall — the Boardwalk indoors at the Atlantic City, N.J., Convention Hall; the Pecan Bowl at Arlington, Tex.; the Grantland Rice Bowl at Baton Rouge, La.; and the Camellia Bowl at Sacramento, Cal. All four will be seen on ABC's regional television networks on December 12.

The two games for the Division Two teams will be played at sites of the competing institutions, probably on November 28.

MAJOR-COLLEGE STATISTICS

1970 Passing Picture Getting Hairy, While Hixson Gets Better And Balder

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG

Assistant Director, National Collegiate Sports Services

Approximately 115 college football teams, which play most of their games against each other, are classified as "major-college" or University Division teams. They represent the field of so-called "big-time" college football as judged by class of competition rather than seasonal strength. The football teams of all other four-year, accredited NCAA-member colleges comprise the College Division field. An official list is issued annually each September.

Chuck Hixson admits he's the Grand Old Man of major-college passers. It all started when he began throwing the ball every day at Southern Methodist. "The more I threw the more hair fell out," he recalls. "I wonder how much hair Y. A. Tittle had left at Louisiana State. Well, I know what's facing me. My teammates already tell everyone I'm 40 years old."

Jim Van Valkenburg

UNLIKE SAMSON, the SMU senior gets better as he gets balder: His 10th completed pass (likely in the season opener) will make him the major-college career leader. Hixson improved his completion percentage to .599 last year, even in losing his passing crown to Florida's John Reaves, 222 completions to 217. Another season like '69 would lift Hixson's career total near 700—a lofty target even for the bushy-haired Reaves.

CREDIT REAVES, though, for destroying the image of the naive, erratic sophomore. Never again can a coach warn convincingly, "He's never played a down of college football."

At 19, Reaves was the first bona fide, first-year passing champion of the post-World War II era. (Hixson's '68 title? He sat out '67 with a knee injury. And even in '68, he was 21, a father and balding.)

Obviously, the 6-foot-3 Reaves had all the confidence needed to lead Florida to an 8-1-1 season and a Gator Bowl victory over Tennessee. He topped 1969's Young Turks: Sophomores quarterbacked seven bowl teams.

Next among returning passers are two seniors with thick, handsome hair—Stanford's Jim Plunkett (fifth) and Kansas State's Lynn Dickey (sixth), who uses hair straightener. And don't overlook Charlie Richards (ninth), Richmond's freckled, sandy-haired senior. Each is 6 feet 3, or taller.

RED-HAIRED ARCHIE MANNING, a 6-3 Mississippi senior, ranks with this trio in total offense because—unlike most top passers—he's also a dangerous runner (502 net yards for 14 touchdowns) who inspires songs ("They try to make a tackle, they wonder where he went, Archie Manning should run for president") and motel signs ("Archie Slept Here").

The seniors are bucking the trend, however. In five categories, the top returnees are juniors: Cornell's Ed Marinaro (rushing), Florida's Carlos Alvarez (pass receiving), Georgia Tech's Jeff Ford (interceptions) and Reaves himself (passing and total offense).

Marinero lifts weights just before every game—to loosen up. Odd, maybe, but Cornell coach Jack Musick doesn't argue with 1409 yards. Marinero, the '69 runnerup, may get stiff arguments from five returning 1,000-yard rushers: Missouri's Joe Moore, Southern Cal's Clarence Davis, New Mexico State's Ron James, North Carolina's Don McCauley and West Virginia's Bob Gresham. All are seniors except James, a junior who comes up with phrases like, "The Power of Positive Running." And don't forget Kent State's Don Nottingham (990 despite missing three games). Kent State may never fill his shoes. He wears size 8½EEEE, and his wide feet are always sore from his sharp-cutting running style.

FLORIDA'S ALVAREZ AND ARKANSAS' BILL BURNETT, the top returning scorer, are both Academic All-Americans. Alvarez, a B-plus pre-law student, also made consensus All-America with his runnerup 88 catches. Next are Mississippi State's Sammy Milner; Houston's Elmo Wright, a B-plus engineering student and accomplished saxophonist whose 20.2 yards per catch set a major-college record; and San Diego State's Tom Reynolds, whose 18 TD catches (in just eight games) was another record. All are seniors.

Reynolds is one of four 100-point scorers behind Burnett, who was third with 120. The others are Florida's Tommy Durrance, West Virginia's Jim Braxton and Purdue's Stan Brown, the defending kickoff-return champion.

WYOMING'S BOB JACOBS (KICK-SCORING), Baylor's Ed Marsh (punting) and Brigham Young's Chris Farasopoulos (punt returns) complete the list of five defending champions. Jacobs, who writes long letters on kicking to boys who ask, demonstrated with 18 field goals—a major-college record. He needs only five more to become the career leader.

Other high-ranking returnees are New Mexico's Jay Morrison and Ohio State's Mike Sensibaugh in interceptions; Tennessee's Bobby Majors and Ohio State's Larry Zelina in punt returns; Pittsburgh's Dave Garnett and SMU's Gary Hammond in kickoff returns; Stanford's Steve Horowitz and Tennessee's George Hunt in kick-scoring; and Tulane's Ken Sanders and Oregon State's Mike Nehl in punting.

'69 Season Individual Leaders

Quiet, poised Dennis Shaw made 10-0-0 San Diego State's first season in the major-college ranks a memorable one by capturing the total-offense crown with 3197 rushing-passing yards—third highest ever by a major collegian. The 6-foot-3 senior set four season records as he ran and passed for 45 touchdowns and 270 points, threw 39 TD passes and averaged 9.5 yards per attempted pass. John Reaves of Florida won the pass-completions title by edging '68 champion Chuck Hixson of SMU, with Shaw third.

Shaw and Reaves each won over the most prolific fields ever. The '69 season produced six 2600-yard players in total offense (compared to a total of five in history prior to '69) and eight 2400-yard passers (compared to a previous total of seven).

North Texas State's Steve Ramsey threw more passes (1015) and completed more (491) for more yards (7076) and more TDs (69), and gained more total-offense yards (6568) than any major collegian ever in a career.

On the career lists, Purdue's Mike Phipps—both Academic and consensus All-America—finished fourth in total offense (5883); in pass completions, Phipps was eighth (375) and Davidson's Gordon Slade fifth (419).

Pass-receiving champion Jerry Hendren of Idaho had to develop timing with three more quarterbacks after Steve Olson was hurt at midseason, but Hendren still caught 95 passes—exceeded only by record-holder Howard Twilley of Tulsa (with 134 in 1965). And Hendren's 230 career catches is the second highest three-year total by any player, major-college or college-division. (Twilley had 261 career catches.)

On the career list, Richmond's Walker Gillette finished seventh (158 catches) and Davidson's Mike Kelly eighth (156).

Four yards and a cloud of dust, 905 times—that's a career summary for Heisman Trophy winner Steve Owens of Oklahoma, rushing-scoring double champion in '69. Owens worked harder, produced more and showed more durability and consistency than any major-college rusher in history.

The 6-foot-2, 215-pounder rushed 232 more times in three seasons than the previous record-holder did in four seasons. Owens' 3867 yards rushing smashed the previous career mark by 479 yards, and his 336 points broke the former three-season career record by 30 points.

How durable? It's said the ball-carrier takes more punishment than any player, and Owens never missed a minute with an injury. His 357 rushes in '68 set a record and he broke that by one in '69. How consistent? Owens averaged 4.3 yards a carry last year, 4.3 as a junior and 4.3 as a sophomore. His 17 straight 100-yard games broke the old mark by eight games.

Owens won the '69 rushing crown the hard way. He carved out 261 yards in his 10th game, topping Cornell's Ed Marinaro, who played only nine games. Marinaro's 1409 yards were the most ever by a major-college sophomore. Owens (138 points) led a 1-2-4 Big Eight sweep in the national scoring race. Second and fourth nationally were Kansas State's 5-foot-5 Mack Herron (126) and All-America Bob Anderson of Colorado (114).

Wyoming's Bob Jacobs used his record 18 field goals to edge Air Force's Dennis Leuthauser, 76-75, and become the third national kick-scoring champion in four years from the Western Athletic Conference. The nation's major collegians kicked a record 669 field goals—nearly double the '64 total. Accuracy also reached new highs, both in field goals (47.7 per cent good) and extra-point kicks (87.8). So did the average distance of successful field goals—32.3 yards against 1968's 31.4.

Other 1969 individual champions were Brigham Young's Chris Faraopoulos in punt returns (527 yards), Purdue's Stan Brown in kickoff returns (698), Arizona State's Seth Miller in interceptions (11), Baylor's Ed Marsh in punting (43.6-yard average), and Army's Lynn Moore in all-purpose running (1795 yards, combining 983 rushing, 44 receiving and 768 in runbacks).

On the career lists, Michigan All-America Tom Curtis reached No. 2 on 25 interceptions for a record 440 yards; and seven kick-scorers reached the top 10, headed by Auburn's John Riley (second, 173 points) and Toledo's Ken Crots (fourth, 165), whose 77 straight PATs set a record.

'69 Season Team Leaders

Led by triple-crown winner San Diego State and rushing champion Texas, the nation's major-college teams produced a big offensive year in 1969 that was amazingly close to 1968's all-time highs. Scoring increased to 43.2 points per game (both teams combined), breaking 1968's record 42.4. That's an increase of just 1.9 per cent, but it's big compared to the other changes. In almost every other category, the figures changed less than 1 per cent.

For instance, total-offense yardage of 657.7 rushing-passing yards per game (both teams combined) was a cleat-mark better than 1968's all-time high of 657.0, but passing yardage of 314.1 was a shade under 1968's record of 315.4. Rushing-passing plays (149.8 per game) also fell barely short of 1968's record high (150.1).

Even though the national figures changed little, the two 10-0-0 statistical giants—Texas and San Diego State—soared above 1968's top teams in three of the four categories, and smashed one all-time record. That one was San Diego's 374.2 passing yards per game. San Diego's 46.4 points per game was the highest since '56 and its 532.2 rushing-passing yards per game ranked second in history (to Houston's 562.0 of 1968).

Texas' 363.0 rushing yards per game was highest since '56. Texas was so deep its starting backfield ran just 59 per cent of its total plays, and Texas substitutes scored 20 of the team's record 51 touchdowns rushing.

Defense wasn't a lost art in 1969, even in a record offensive era. For instance, 9-1-0 Louisiana State gave up just 38.9 rushing yards per game—a figure bettered by only one team in 22 years. Led by 9-1-0 Arkansas (7.6 points allowed per game), three teams gave up fewer points than the 1968 champion. Similarly, Dayton (90.0) headed seven teams that gave up fewer passing yards per game than the 1968 titlist. In the total-defense race won by 10-0-0 Toledo (209.1 rushing-passing yards allowed per game), ninth-place Dartmouth would have been the 1968 runnerup. Dayton was the fifth pass-defense champion from Ohio in the last six years.

Health and Sight of Double Champions Present Trouble for Able Challengers

By PAUL EATON

National Collegiate Sports Services

There are many top college-division returnees who would like to dethrone 1969's prolific double champions—seniors Tim Von Dulm of Portland State (total offense and passing) and Leon Burns of Long Beach State (rushing and scoring). But a healthy Von Dulm and just the sight of Burns is enough to scare the opposition.

Paul Eaton

Von Dulm is busy lifting weights in an attempt to strengthen his passing arm, bothered by tendonitis during 1969. He can no longer throw the ball 70 yards as in high school, but if the tendonitis disappears, just how much competition will there be for a healthy Von Dulm?

JIM LINDSEY, FOR ONE. The Abilene Christian senior, no newcomer himself to the injured list, came back from a broken collarbone in 1969's spring practice and placed second nationally in both total offense and passing. In 1968, Lindsey won the passing crown and finished second in total offense. In those two categories, he now needs 1392 rushing-passing yards and 167 completions to set college-division career records.

And Idaho State's Jerry Dunne, for another. Dunne was averaging 314.8 rushing-passing yards in six games (Von Dulm's season average—273.6) in total offense when an injury stopped him. Senior Matt Haug of Murray State and junior Bill Junck of Morningside are other total offense contenders. If that isn't enough competition, all the top seven passers return.

"CLARK KENT IS A FRAUD," was one writer's reaction after seeing muscular tailback Leon Burns. His presence will again be felt—literally—by many foes this season. The 26-year-old senior measures 6 feet 2, 220 pounds, and he boasts a 54-inch chest, 32-inch waist and 22-inch biceps. He uses these muscles to bench-press 555 pounds—two pounds more than the combined weight of his top three challengers for the 1970 rushing title. They are St. Olaf's Olaf Gunderson (175 pounds), Central Michigan's Jesse Lakes (193) and Luther's Bernie Peeters (185). Junior Gunderson finished second in both rushing and scoring. In all, seven of the top 10 scorers are back including the '68 rushing-scoring king, Randolph-Macon's Howard Stevens.

One other champion returns this season. He's Warner Robertson, the Maryland State junior going for an unprecedented third straight punting championship. Top competition may be seniors Dan Pastorini of Santa Clara and Jim Pociak of DePauw.

Top returning receivers are Abilene Christian's Ronnie Vinson, Kenyon's Chris Myers, Austin Peay's Harold Roberts (who set a college-division single-game record of 20 receptions) and Jim Devers of Delta State.

Four of the top 10 kick-scorers return. They are Dan Worrell of Montana, Sam Bass of Western Illinois, Jaime Nunez of Weber State and John Pahoski of Central Michigan. Junior Nunez is the only non-senior.

'69 Season Individual Leaders

Tim Von Dulm of Portland State finished strong (701 yards in his final two games) and overtook Jim Lindsey of Abilene Christian for the total offense title. Lindsey managed only 328 yards his last two games. Von Dulm's 2736 rushing-passing yards was the fifth highest in college-division history. The 1968 champion, Louisiana Tech's Terry Bradshaw, reached third place with 714 in his final two games but played only nine games.

The passing crown was also settled in the final two games when Von Dulm overwhelmed Lindsey, 63 completions to 38. Von Dulm finished with 241 completions, second highest ever by a college-division player. Northern Illinois' George Bork completed 244 in 1963. Von Dulm also hurled the most TD passes (26) and Otterbein's Norm Lukey led in percentage completed (.608), among passers with at least 200 attempts.

After leading all college-division rushers through his last five games, St. Olaf's Olaf Gunderson sat helplessly while Long Beach State's Leon Burns ran by him in his final game. Burns rushed for 164 yards against major-college San Diego State and finished with 68 more yards than Gunderson, who played in two less games. Burns' 1659 yards is the second highest college-division total ever.

A record 27 players rushed for more than 1000 yards, six more than 1968's all-time high. The season's single-game highs were 356 yards by Gunderson and 342 by Central Michigan's Jesse Lakes.

Burns scored nine touchdowns his last two games and overtook Gunderson for the scoring title, 164 points to 132. Burns' 27 touchdowns are one short of the all-time record.

Idaho State's Ed Bell set the pace in a record-breaking year for pass catchers. He set season college-division records for receptions (96) and yards receiving (1522) and a season collegiate record for TDs by receiving (20). Emporia State's Bruce Cerone rewrote the career records for yards (4354), TDs (49) and yards per game (120.9). His 241 career receptions is a college-division record.

'69 Season

Team

Leaders

The Midwest won four of the nine team titles, led by St. Olaf's two: rushing offense and scoring.

The Gunderson-led Oles of St. Olaf became the first team in college-division history to win both the rushing and scoring titles in the same year. The Oles' rushing average of 369.1 yards per game is the second highest in the last 12 years, topped only by Kearney State's 370.1 in 1966.

Delaware gave the East its first total-offense champion ever (488.9), though hard-pressed by St. Olaf (487.2). The balance of Delaware's offense was quite even—268.1 yards rushing per game and 220.8 yards passing. The Blue Hens were never lower than second during the season.

Portland State rode Von Duhn's arm to the passing title (308.6 yards per game) and 252 completions, three short of Northern Illinois' college-division high in 1963.

Punting champion Ursinus edged Sacramento State, 42.0 to 41.8, and ended the closest punting race ever in college-division history. Only eight tenths of a yard separated the first and seventh teams.

Although its grip on defensive titles was somewhat loosened by Kings Point, the South did collect its sixth consecutive total-defense crown and ninth in the last 11 years. Livingstone allowed only 148.5 rushing-passing yards to win that crown. Kings Point ended the South's five-year domination in rushing defense by allowing only 16.2 yards per game and became the East's first champion in this category since 1960.

Midwest teams won both the pass-defense and scoring-defense titles. Wabash allowed 72.0 passing yards per game, and Carthage permitted only 6.0 points per game.

1970 University Division Schedules

Listed alphabetically in this section are the 1970 schedules and 1969 records of all teams classified "major-college" in 1969.

Schedules and records of College Division teams are listed in a separate section, beginning on page 125.

Below each school name and location appears the name of its 1970 head coach, together with his complete coaching record for all seasons as the head coach at any four-year collegiate institution.

Home games are indicated by a diamond (♦) and night games by an asterisk (*). Neutral sites are indicated by footnote symbols († ‡ #) on each schedule.

Opposite each opponent on a team's 1970 schedule is the all-time series record—the number of games won, lost and tied against that opponent in previous meetings between the two teams.

No Brain Drain In College Football; 5 Academic A-As On Consensus Team

Compiled by National Collegiate Sports Services

Maybe it's only a coincidence that the 1969 consensus All-America team was both the heaviest and brainiest in history. It included five Academic All-Americas—two more than any previous consensus team—and the 23-player squad averaged a record 220.7 pounds per man.

Weighty problems were routine for the brainy group headed by Penn State linebacker Dennis Onkotz, an A-minus student in biophysics. The other Academic All-Americas on the consensus team—all with B-plus grade averages—were Purdue quarterback Mike Phipps (industrial management), Florida end Carlos Alvarez (pre-law), Michigan end Jim Mandich (economics) and Auburn defensive back Buddy McClinton (business administration).

YOU MIGHT CALL THE CONSENSUS BACKFIELD—heaviest ever at 210.8 pounds per man—Phipps and the Three Bulls. All three runners—Oklahoma's Steve Owens, Colorado's Bob Anderson and Ohio State's Jim Otis—were noted more for slashing power than for speed.

The 215-pound Owens led the nation in both rushing (1523 yards) and scoring (138 points) and became the all-time career leader in rushing (3867) and three-year scoring (336). Anderson moved from quarterback to tailback after the first two games and still finished with 954 yards rushing and 19 TDs. Otis stomped the middle for 1027 and 16 TDs.

Phipps ran for eight touchdowns himself and passed for 23 more as he reached No. 4 in career total offense (5883 rushing-passing yards). In all, Phipps and the Three Bulls ran and passed for an awesome 538 points—highest by any consensus All-America backfield in major-college history.

Phipps, Mandich and Owens were among six unanimous choices on the 81st annual team. The others were defensive tackles Mike McCoy of Notre Dame and Mike Reid of Penn State and linebacker Steve Kiner of Tennessee.

ONKOTZ AND KINER WERE THE ONLY REPEATERS FROM the 1968 consensus team, which is compiled annually by combining the selections of the AP, UPI, NEA, American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America and the Central Press captains' team.

Alvarez, the nation's No. 2 receiver with 88 catches for 1329 yards, was the first sophomore chosen for the consensus team since Army's Bob Anderson in '57 and the fourth in the last 23 seasons.

National champion Texas had five of the 51 players (from 30 colleges), receiving first-team votes, Ohio State and Penn State four each. Texas' harvest has been exceeded by only four teams in the last 30 years.

Kent State, Richmond and Citadel made the roster for the first time ever, increasing to 83 the number of colleges represented in the Sixties, compared to 77 in the Fifties and 67 in the Forties.

Notre Dame and Ohio State are the only teams ranked among the leaders in every decade. For all the last 30 years, the leaders are Notre Dame 64, Army 38, Ohio State 35, Michigan State 34, Texas and Oklahoma 33 each.

As one facet of the celebration of College Football's Centennial in 1969, two All-Time teams were chosen to recognize the top players of the game's first century. Each squad represented 50 years of the game's history.

Selections were by the Football Writers Association of America, with sponsorship by the Chevrolet Motor Division, which presented personal awards and a $1000 scholarship in his name to each selectee's alma mater.

These 22 players represent the finest in college football's history, their feats are legend and their stories are the very fiber of this unique American game.

The NCAA joins the Football Writers and Chevrolet in extending congratulations to these honored players.

THE NATIONAL COLLEGIATE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION'S

Official Read-Easy
FOOTBALL RULES
1970

Edited by BERT McGRANE • Illustrations by WALT DITZEN

FOREWORD

1970 Outlook—New Results With Old Rules

College football begins its 102nd season in 1970, aglow with tradition, color, excitement, excellence—and virtually the same set of rules with which it began its second century in 1969.

But it wasn't always thus, as the game experienced drastic changes throughout its first 100 years.

The field, the ball, the equipment and even the number of downs were altered. Platoons and specialists came, departed and returned, as a part of the game's evolution in the years since the massive, brutal "flying wedge" was ruled out lest President Theodore Roosevelt decree the game a public health hazard. Through a third of football's first century, the forward pass was no more than a notion in the minds of inventive individualists. And even running with the ball was illegal when the game was originated in 1869.

The code that now governs college football is the composite product of men of vision and dedication who have striven through the years to improve football's every phase.

Today it is the game that typifies the spirit of combat, the fundamentals of sportsmanship and the lusty ideals of young American manhood. It is the acknowledged leader of all of America's collegiate sports.

Yet the quest for perfection continues, as farsighted men weigh yet other measures to improve the game. The evolution of football is not necessarily complete.

Perhaps the most noticeable of the 21 minor revisions adopted by the Rules Committee for 1970 is one pertaining to pass defense. Any foul by the defense against an eligible pass receiver who is beyond the line of scrimmage on a play during which a forward pass is thrown now will be ruled as interference. Heretofore, the defense was not considered guilty of pass interference until the pass actually was thrown.

This second edition of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's Official Read-Easy Football Rules is a streamlined "translation" into player-spectator language of the NCAA Official Football Rules.

The latter, being meticulously compiled essentially for those who administer and officiate the game, of necessity is painstakingly detailed. And its purpose does not encompass defining the quasi-technical terms that have come into general usage among the millions who play, report or just enjoy the sport.

Insofar as is known, this publication is the original effort at a "peoples' version" of the complete playing rules for any major sport. It is based strictly on the 1970 Official Football Rules, but should anything in the Read-Easy Rules inadvertently be in conflict with the Official Rules, the latter take precedence.

Of course, if you want to get down to the nitty gritty, you can obtain the NCAA Official Football Rules Book (75c) and its supplement NCAA Official Football Rules Interpretations ($1) by request-with-remittance to the NCAA, 349 East Thomas Road, Phoenix, Ariz. 85012.

Then all you'll need are a whistle and a striped shirt.

THE EDITOR

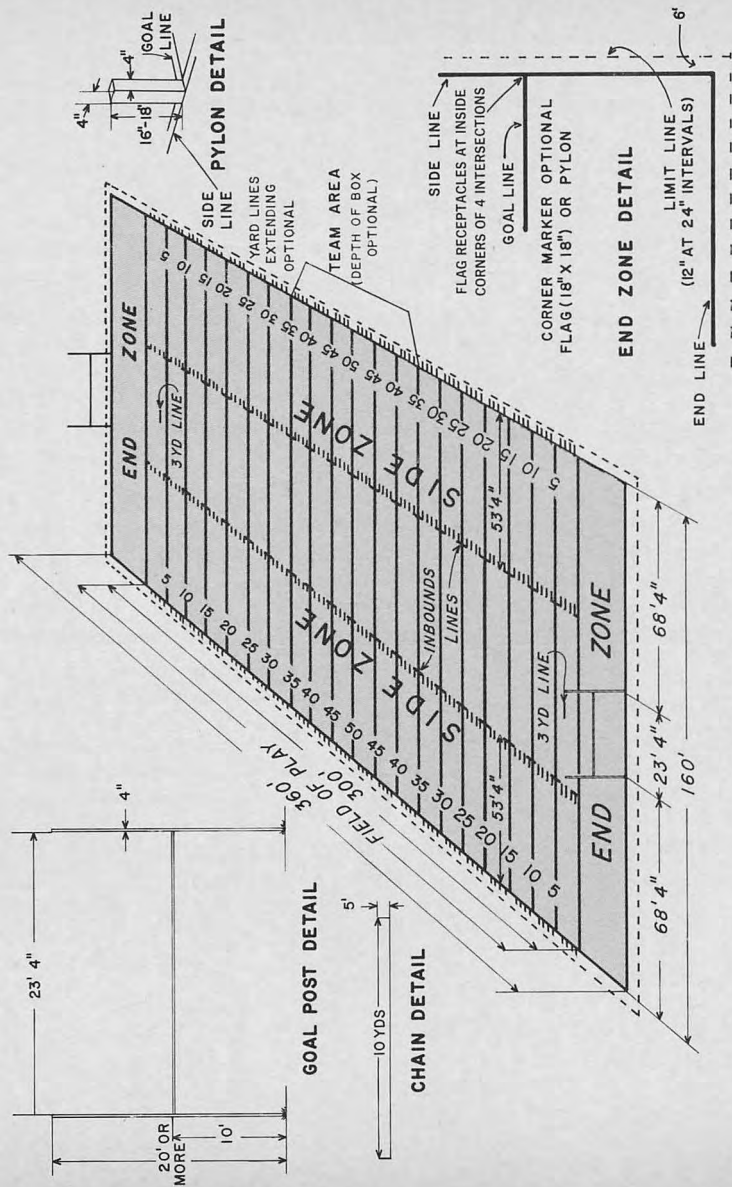

DIAGRAM OF FIELD

Rule One

GAME, FIELD, PLAYERS AND EQUIPMENT

SECTION 1—This is Football.

Two teams of not more than eleven players each compete on a rectangular field with an inflated ball. A goal line at one end of the field is assigned to each team to defend. The object is to reach the opponents' goal, advancing the ball by running with it, passing it to a teammate or kicking it, and each team is given opportunities to do so. The rules provide points for scoring and, not surprisingly the winner is the one with the larger score at the end of the game. There are no protests in college football.

SECTION 2—Supervision. There's a set of officials for each game, usually a Referee, Umpire, Linesman, Field Judge and Back Judge. Only each team's Field Captain may speak with the Officials.

SECTION 3—Field Dimensions. The playing field measures 300 feet between the goal lines and 160 feet in width. All boundary markers are outside the playing field, since measurements of the area are taken from the inside of the boundary markers. Thus, a player who steps on the sideline is out of bounds, and the ball has only to be in possession on or above opponents' goal line to score.

A 10-yard area known as the end zone extends beyond each goal line. This area culminates with the end line, where the goal posts are located. The goal posts are 23 feet, 4 inches apart and are joined by a crossbar 10 feet above the ground.

SECTION 4—Field Markings. Every white line on a football field serves a purpose and helps spectators, teams and officials. The stripes from sideline to sideline are the 5-yard markers, helpful in determining length of advance and the point to be gained. The short stripes at one-yard intervals are inbound lines. All plays must begin with the ball on or inside the inbound lines. The short line midway between the goalposts and three yards in from the goal line is the point from which the Try-for-Point is attempted.

SECTION 5—Yardage and Down Indicators. The chain used on the sideline to determine the point to be gained in a series of downs is 10 yards in length, with the chain affixed to two five-foot high poles. The down coming up next is shown atop a third pole.

SECTION 6—The Ball. The shape and dimensions of a football are unique. It is a "prolate spheroid," and if you don't know what a prolate spheroid is, it is exactly the shape of a football. It just misses being a foot long, measuring 11 to 11¼ inches. It's just short of a pound, weighing 14 to 15 ounces. And don't let anybody tell you a football is made of pigskin. It is not. It's made of pebble-grained leather (or, occasionally, of rubber).

SECTION 7—Jersey Colors and Numbering. Opposing players are required to wear jerseys of contrasting color and, inhospitably perhaps, it is the visiting team that must produce the contrasting color if a change is necessary. Players must wear numbers both front and back and groups of numbers are recommended by offensive positions, as shown in the following diagram:

On a scrimmage play, at least five offensive players with numbers 50 through 79 must line up on the line of scrimmage.

SECTION 8—Protective Equipment. Each player must wear a head guard, or helmet, and knee pads. Other protective equipment is urged, but not mandatory. If a player shows up without shoulder pads, for example, that's his business. Few are so inclined.

Rule Two

DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1—Language Unique.

Suppose a stranger to football visualized a Free Ball as one obtained without cost, or a Fair Catch as less than a great catch. He might assume Clipping has to do with the lawn hedge, or Down a command to an overly friendly dog. Perish the thought!

Football, you see, has a language of its own, and generations of members of the Official Rules Committee have faced the challenge of defining its terminology. A study of the language of the game can be both enlightening and interesting.

SECTION 2—The Ball, Live, Dead, Free. In the course of a game, for example, the Ball itself may be referred to as a live ball, a dead ball, a free ball, a loose ball, an out-of-bounds ball, or maybe just a blankety-blank ball. In any case, it always is the game ball and once in play, it is "live" until it goes out of bounds, hits the ground on an incomplete pass or is declared dead by the Referee, as detailed in Rule 4. It is "live" also when it is fumbled across the goal line without being in possession of either team.

Obviously, when the ball is not "live" it is considered dead.

A Free Ball is a live ball that is not in possession of either team. The ball is "in possession" when it is controlled by a player or while a forward pass (or backward pass on the center snap) is in flight and while a punt or field goal is being attempted.

SECTION 3—Other Official Terms. Those definitions merely start us on a long list. Some others:

BLOCKING—Legally hindering the progress of an opponent by contacting him with any part of the blocker's body.

CLIPPING—Running or diving into the back of an opponent, or throwing the body across the back of the leg or legs of an opponent other than the ball carrier.

CRAWLING—An attempt to advance the ball by a player after any part of his person except a hand or foot has touched the ground.

DOWN—A single play by the team in possession of the ball. It starts with a snap from center or a free kick and ends when the ball next becomes dead.

DROP KICK—A technique now rarely employed, in which a player drops the ball and kicks it as it touches the ground or as it rises from the ground.

FAIR CATCH—The opportunity for a player of the receiving team to catch a kicked ball that has crossed the scrimmage line, without being tackled or blocked by an opponent, after signaling his intention by completely extending one arm above his head.

FORWARD PASS—A live ball thrown toward the opponents' goal.

FOUL AND VIOLATION—A foul is a Rules infraction subject to a penalty. A violation incurs no yardage penalty.

FREE KICK—A kick made with each team restricted from advancing beyond a fixed restraining line until the ball is kicked.

FUMBLE—Inadvertent loss of the ball by a player who had it in his possession.

HUDDLE—Two or more offensive players grouped together after the ball is ready for play, usually for receiving instructions from the quarterback concerning the ensuing play.

KICKOFF—A free kick with which each half is opened, and which is employed also following each Try-for-Point or Field Goal. A kickoff must be either a Placekick or a Dropkick.

LATERAL PASS—A live ball thrown toward or parallel with the passer's own goal line.

LINEMAN—A player who is on the line of scrimmage when the ball is snapped. Conversely, a Back is a player legally behind the line at the snap.

NEUTRAL ZONE—The space between the scrimmage lines of the offense and defense, approximating 11 inches (the length of the football).

PLACE KICK—The technique most often employed to kickoff and on field goal and try-for-point attempts. The ball, which may be held in position by any player of the kicking team, is kicked from a fixed position either on the ground or on a tee.

PUNT—A ball that is dropped from the hands of a player and kicked by him before it touches the ground.

SCRIMMAGE—A play which begins with a snap from the center.

SCRIMMAGE LINE—The yard line (marked or unmarked) that passes through point of the ball nearest a team's own goal line.

SHIFT—Change of positions simultaneously by two or more offensive players after play is ready to start and before the snap.

SNAP—A quick, continuous motion by which the ball is handed or snapped back with the ball leaving the hands of the snapper on the motion. The snap normally is made by the Center.

TACKLING—Grasping or encircling an opponent with hands or arms.

YARD LINE—Any line (marked or unmarked) in the field of play parallel to the end lines. "Own" yard line means between a team's own goal line and the 50-yard line (midfield).

SECTION 4—Unofficial Terms. Additional football terms in modern use which are not found in the Rules Book but have become common to the unofficial terminology of the game include:

ACTION PASS—Forward pass thrown from an offensive formation simulating a running play.

AUDIBLE—A vocal signal by the quarterback changing the play called in the huddle. Also called Check Off.

BALL CONTROL—An offensive technique of retaining possession of the ball by making a sustained series of first downs, rather than attempting long-gain plays.

BLITZ—Commitment by defensive backs and/or linebackers to rush the passer.

BOMB—A long pass attempt for a touchdown.

BUTTONHOOK—A pass pattern in which the receiver goes downfield and U-turns back sharply to receive the ball.

DIVE-TACKLE PLAY—A quick-handoff running play over tackle.

DRAW PLAY—Quarterback drops back as if to pass but instead hands ball to running back, after quarterback's teammates have assumed pass-blocking positions.

FLAG—Officials' penalty marker or field corner flag; also a pass pattern to the corner flag (opposite of post pass).

FRONT FOUR—Four-man defensive line—the tackles and ends.

HANDOFF—Quarterback hands ball to a back for a running play.

LINEBACKER—A defensive player operating immediately behind his line where he can either aid linemen in stopping a running play or cover an opponents' receiver if a pass develops.

LONG COUNT—Quarterback calls numerous numbers to slow action as much as is legally possible. Also called Slow Count.

LOOK-IN PASS—Receiver runs straight pattern and looks for the ball immediately over his inside shoulder.

MAN-TO-MAN DEFENSE—Plan of pass defense wherein defensive backs cover receivers wherever they go, rather than field areas.

MONSTER—A roving linebacker who may position himself on either side of his team's defensive formation.

ON-SIDE KICK—A kickoff that travels 10 yards or more is anybody's ball. The so-called "onside kick" is an effort by the kicking team to kick the ball barely beyond 10 yards and recover it before the receiving team can do so.

POCKET—Area of protection for the passer, formed by blockers. Passer drops straight back from scrimmage behind the blocking shield into what resembles a “cup” or pocket.

POST—A pass pattern in which receiver goes downfield to pre-determined depth then cuts at an angle toward the goalposts.

PREVENT DEFENSE—A strategem replacing linebackers with additional backfield pass defenders, sacrificing strength against short gainers in order to prevent a long pass completion. Most often employed by a team protecting a lead late in either half.

PULLING GUARD—Guard who pulls out behind scrimmage line for a trap block or to lead sweep blocking for ball carrier.

REVERSE PLAY—A running play with backfield action suggesting one direction while ball carrier goes in opposite direction.

ROLL-OUT PASS—Quarterback runs laterally with blockers before throwing, instead of dropping straight back to pass.

SCREEN PASS—Pass to a receiver behind a wall of blockers, who have permitted defenders to penetrate.

SLOT BACK—Back stationed in slot between interior linemen and end. Must be one yard behind the line of scrimmage.

SPLIT END—A lineman who, like the flanker back, is set wide for pass-receiving purposes. Also called a Wide End.

STRONG SIDE—Overbalance of offensive or defensive linemen to either side of the Center.

STUNTING—Defensive players changing positions as the ball is snapped, to confuse offensive strategy.

SWEEP—End run with wave of blockers leading the ball carrier.

TIGHT END—Offensive end who lines up in close formation (as opposed to Split End's wide set) where he can either block for a ball carrier or be employed as a pass receiver.

TRAP BLOCK—A play permitting a defender to penetrate quickly, only to be blocked from the side by pulling guard or tackle.

ZONE DEFENSE—Plan of pass defense wherein areas are covered rather than individual receivers. Opposite of Man-To-Man.

Rule Three

PERIODS, TIME FACTORS AND SUBSTITUTIONS

SECTION 1—Start of the Game.

Each half must start with a kickoff, but it doesn't have to be a placekick. If some young man desires to begin a half with a dropkick he will be considered an innovator, but he will be entirely within his rights. The status of the dropkick has not been changed in years, although it has virtually disappeared from usage.

There's one preliminary to the kickoff. About three minutes before the scheduled start of a game, the Referee calls the field captains together and tosses a coin, first designating which shall call heads or tails. The winner of the toss has the option of kicking, receiving or choosing the goal his team will defend. A choice once announced may not be changed. The loser of the toss has his choice of the options at the start of the second half.

SECTION 2—Start of Second and Fourth Quarters. During the brief intermission between the first and second periods and between the third and fourth periods the teams change goals. The ball is relocated in the opposite half of the field at the spot corresponding exactly to where it was before the change of goals. Possession of the ball, the down and distance to be gained remain unchanged.

SECTION 3—Playing Time and Intermissions. The total actual playing time in a collegiate game is 60 minutes, divided into four periods of 15 minutes each and with one-minute intermissions between the first and second quarters and the third and fourth quarters. (High Schools and Prep Schools play 12-minute quarters.) The halftime intermission is 15 minutes, but it may be lengthened or shortened by mutual agreement. The playing time of a game also may be shortened by agreement of the two Field Captains, or by the Referee, if in his opinion darkness may interfere.

SECTION 4—Extension of Periods. No period ends when the ball is in play, even though time expires during the play. If the time runs out during a play on which a touchdown is scored, the Try-for-point is completed. The period also is extended to permit completion of a play free of penalty, if a defensive team fouls on a play during which time expires. No such extension of the period applies when the team in possession fouls or when both teams foul on the play.

SECTION 5—The Game Clock. This item can be more vital to the outcome of a football game than a timer is to a soft-boiled egg. It may be a stopwatch operated by the Field Judge or Back Judge, or it may be an electrically powered field clock operated by an assistant.

The clock first starts when a Kickoff is legally caught or touched. Thus, if a Kickoff goes out of bounds the clock is not started, since the ball was not legally touched or caught.

On scrimmage downs, the clock is started when the ball is snapped or on prior signal by the Referee.

The clock is stopped (a) when the Referee declares time out; (b) when a Touchdown, Field Goal, Safety or Touchback is made; (c) when a Penalty is called; (d) when a Forward Pass falls incomplete; (e) when a Fair Catch is made or when the ball is illegally touched; (f) when a live ball goes out of bounds; (g) when a first down is declared for either team; and (h) when a period ends.

The clock does not run during a Try-for Point.

SECTION 6—Time Outs. Each team is permitted four free time outs in each half, except that a team may not request two of its time outs consecutively. Free time outs may not exceed one and one-half minutes.

During a free time out, one player at a time may go to the sidelines to confer with the coaches.

The Referee has the authority to call time out for a contingency such as the repair of damaged equipment which might become dangerous, or quieting the crowd when a team can not hear its signals. He also orders time out during measurement for a first down.

The clock is stopped for each time out.

After its fourth time out in each half, a team may be allowed a subsequent time out only for the replacement of an injured player and such an excess time out is no longer than the Referee deems necessary for the purpose.

SECTION 7—Delays. If a team is not ready for play at the scheduled time for the beginning of each half, it is penalized 15 yards. Failure to promptly remove an injured player is interpreted as delaying the game and is subject to a 5-yard penalty.

But the most common form of delay is action or inaction representing "stalling" tactics by a team attempting to consume time, usually near the end of either half of the game. A 5-yard penalty is invoked whenever the offensive team fails to put the ball in play within 25 seconds after it has been declared ready for play by the Referee. Also, when the Referee believes a team is trying to consume (or conserve) time by unfair tactics, he may order the clock started (or stopped).

SECTION 8—Substitutions. The controversial "free substitution" rule in college football is not quite literally that, because no more than two substitutes may enter the game except at specified times. However, present rules are so generous in this respect as to approximate "free" substitution.

The occasions on which any number of substitutes may enter the game include: (a) between periods; (b) after a score or try-for-point; (c) when the ball changes hands after a series of downs or (d) when, following a kick, the kicking team is awarded a first down.

Substitutions may not be made while the ball is in play and a substitute who enters the game may not be withdrawn until one down has intervened, a foul occurs or the period ends.

Even more liberalized or restrictive substitution rules may be adopted in Prep School and High School games.

Role Four

BALL IN PLAY, DEAD BALL, OUT OF BOUNDS

SECTION 1—"Alive" if in Play.

The proverbial cat with nine lives was a piker compared to the ball used in a football game. It may be "live" one minute and "dead" the next and then, without fanfare, it becomes live again, dead again time and time again in the course of a game. And if the sweet young thing with the pom-pon asks if a live ball might race away under its own power, you'll just have to set her straight. Football, remember, has its own language.

After a dead ball has been declared ready for play by the Referee, it becomes a live ball when it is snapped or free kicked. A ball loses its "life" and becomes "dead" in many ways, including when an official blows his whistle accidentally.

SECTION 2—When Ball is Declared Dead. Generally speaking, the ball is "blown dead" by an official, signifying the end of a play:

- a. When it goes out of bounds or touches the goal line of the ball carrier's opponents, or when a ball carrier is so held that his forward progress is stopped;
- b. When any part of the ball carrier's body, other than his hand or foot, touches the ground (except it remains alive when held for a placekick, even though the ball holder's knee is on the ground);
- c. When a touchdown, field goal, safety, touchback or try-for point has been made, or when a fair catch has been made;
- d. When the defensive team gains possession of the ball on a try-for point, or when the try fails to score;

- e. When the kicking team recovers a kick that has crossed the neutral zone;
- f. When a kick comes to rest on the ground and no player attempts to recover it;
- g. When a forward pass strikes the ground, or is caught simultaneously by opposing players;
- h. When a backward pass or fumble is recovered by an opponent after the ball has hit the ground.

SECTION 3—The 25-Seconds Rule. The ball, once dead, may not be put back in play until the Referee declares it ready for play. It then must be put in play within 25 seconds.

SECTION 4—Out of Bounds. A play is out of bounds when a player—or the ball in his possession—touches a boundary line or anything on or beyond it except an official or another player. A free ball (except a scoring kick) or a forward pass is out of bounds when it touches the ground or anything else on or outside a boundary line.

The point where the ball crossed the sideline determines where it went out of bounds. If a player with the ball in his possession is tackled with part of his person out of bounds but the ball remains within the playing field, the ball is ruled out of bounds at the farthest point of its advance.

Rule Five

SERIES OF DOWNS, LINE TO GAIN

So universally accepted is the word "down" in football that it often is taken for granted and implied, rather than stated—as in "third and three." To followers this means third down and three yards to go.

SECTION 1—When Series is Awarded. A down always is one play in a set of four, known as a "series of downs," because when a team comes into possession of the ball (usually by receiving a kick, intercepting a pass or recovering a fumble), it is awarded four downs in which to gain the required ten yards or more to continue possession, and to be awarded another series of four downs.

This, of course, is the significance of the familiar "first and ten," which is simply football shorthand for first down and ten yards to go. The 10-yard distance to be gained is measured from the ball's most forward point and that target (officially termed but seldom called "the line to gain") is kept in view along the sideline by a yardage chain.

Associated with the chain is a down indicator. It is an ancient and revered device now primarily for the information of nearby officials and players, since scoreboards generally serve this purpose better for everyone else in the stadium.

SECTION 2—When Series is Renewed. A legal advance to or beyond the "line to gain" may be made in one down, or in any number through four downs. When the yardage requirement has been met, the team in possession is awarded a new series of four downs and the "line to gain" is advanced ten yards. This, universally but unofficially, is known as "making a first down," as distinguished from a first down inherited when the ball changes hands.

SECTION 3—When Series is Broken. A team that fails to gain the required ten yards in a full series of four downs must relinquish the ball to the opposing team at the point where the fourth down play ends. To assure the turnover of possession at the most advantageous possible point on the field, the strategem most often employed is a fourth-down kick.

SECTION 4—First and Goal. One of the most conspicuous omissions of the word "down" is in the situation usually called "first and goal." It means a team has made (or inherited) a brand new series of downs less than 10 yards from its opponents' goal line, hence first down and goal (instead of 10 yards) to go.

SECTION 5—Penalty Interruption of Series. The Official Rules cover in detail various tricky situations a Referee must unravel when a penalty intrudes on a series of downs. Unless you plan to don a striped shirt, all you will be interested in knowing are these basic facts:

- a. A penalty moving the ball to or beyond the "line to gain" earns a first down the same as a run or pass play.
- b. Most yardage penalties simply cancel the play during which foul occurred and that down is repeated from the new spot (unless a first down was earned by the penalty yardage).
- c. It's also a "do over" when both teams commit fouls during a single play (called offsetting fouls), except there is an option when the ball changes possession in such a situation (Rule 10, Section 2).
- d. However, if a penalty is declined by the team against which the foul was committed, it is the penalty that is canceled and the play and down count as if the foul had never occurred.

Rule Six

KICKS

EDITOR'S NOTE—From the sketchy history of the origin of football, we know only that the kick was the very foundation of the early-day game. Without it, the ball could not have been moved, since there were no provisions for carrying the ball.

Research by Herbert O. (Fritz) Crisler of the University of Michigan, permanent member of the Football Rules Committee, has brought to light the first running play of record. It was illegal, and more than fifty years passed before the American version of that run was introduced into football.

The incident took place in 1823 at Rugby School in England under "Association" football rules and William Webb Ellis, the original forgotten man of football, made the run. Near the close of the engagement, "he caught the ball and instead of kicking it back as required by the rules, ran through the astonished opposition across the goal line."

Today, on an ivy-covered wall at Rugby, a tablet marks his place in football history:

THIS STONE COMMEMORATES THE EXPLOIT OF WILLIAM WEBB ELLIS WHO WITH FINE DISREGARD FOR THE RULES OF FOOTBALL FIRST TOOK THE BALL IN HIS ARMS AND RAN WITH IT THUS ORIGINATING THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE OF THE RUGBY GAME . . . A.D. 1823.

Thus, apparently, were sown the seeds of our running game which now, with the pass, shares emphasis with the kick. But the booted ball, the subject matter of Rule 6, never has ceased to be a basic part of football.

SECTION 1—Free Kicks [Kickoffs]. The most familiar Free Kick—requiring both teams to remain behind their respective restraining lines until the ball is kicked—is the kickoff (see Definitions, Rule 2, Section 3). For the kicking team, the restraining line is its own 40-yard line (unless relocated by penalty) and the receiving team's restraining line is ten yards beyond (usually the 50-yard line).

Much rarer is the Free Kick after a safety is scored, when the restraining line for the kicking team is its 20-yard line, with the receiving team's restraining line at the 30-yard line.

The ball is placed on the kicking team's restraining line and all of its players except the kicker and the holder of the ball on a place-kick must stay behind the ball until it is kicked. This exception legalizes the "soccer-type" kickoff.

The receiving team not only must keep all its players behind its restraining line, but also must have at least five of them within five yards of that line. This might be termed the "anti-flying-wedge" rule, because it is what prevents the receiving team from forming a solid mass of blockers around its receiver.

SECTION 2—Free Kick Recovery. No player of the kicking team may touch a free kick before it either reaches the opponents' restraining line (i.e., travels at least ten yards) or is touched by a player of the receiving team. Thus, when a trailing team attempts an "onside" kickoff (usually in a game's waning moments), the trick is to kick the ball a minimum distance over ten yards and try to recover it before the opposition does. If the ball is touched before it has traveled ten yards, the kicking team is "offside" and the opponents are awarded possession at that spot.

A player of the receiving team may run with a free kick (unless a fair catch was signalled), but a player of the kicking team cannot advance a recovered free kick.

If a ball rolls dead on a free kick, i.e., no one attempts to take possession, it belongs to the receiving team. But if a kickoff into the end zone is not downed by the receiving team, the kicking team scores a touchdown simply by recovering the ball. This error of omission by a receiving team turns up more often than you might think.

SECTION 3—Kickoff Out of Bounds. When a kickoff (or any free kick) goes out of bounds untouched, the receiving team may either (a) take possession where it went out of bounds or (b) require the kicking team to accept a 5-yard penalty and kick again (this time from its own 35-yard line, if kickoff was from the 40).

SECTION 4—Scrimmage Kicks [Punts, etc.]. Scrimmage kicks—whether punts, placekicks or dropkicks—have no restraining line for either team except the line of scrimmage. Either a punt or a placekicked field goal attempt is the common fourth down strategy of an offensive team that has failed to make the necessary ten yards in three of its series of four downs.

If a scrimmage kick (except the try-for-point) fails to cross the scrimmage line, whether blocked by an opponent or for other reason, any player may recover and advance the ball. But once the ball has crossed the scrimmage line, no player of the kicking team may recover the ball before it touches an opponent. If the kicking team touches the ball first, possession is awarded to the receiving team at the spot, and the ball becomes dead.

As with free kicks, the receiving team may advance a recovered scrimmage kick (unless a fair catch was signalled), but not so the kicking team. A scrimmage kick that goes out of bounds belongs to the receiving team at that point.

SECTION 5—Opportunity to Catch a Kick. A player of the receiving team who is in position to catch a kick may not be interfered with by the kicking team while the ball is in flight. This protection terminates, however, the moment he or a teammate touches the ball.

SECTION 6—Fair Catch. A fair catch signal—arm extended clearly over head—gives a player the right to make an unmolested attempt to catch the ball without fear of being blocked or tackled after the catch. As his part of the bargain, the kick catcher's fair-catch signal "promises" he will not attempt to run with the ball.

When a fair catch is made, the ball is dead at the spot of the catch and the receiver incurs a 5-yard penalty if he takes more than two steps after the catch. If a player of the kicking team tackles or blocks an opponent who has made a fair catch, he incurs a 15-yard penalty.

A player who signals for a fair catch is not obligated to attempt the catch, but if he does not, he must not block an opponent on the play (enforced by a 15-yard penalty).

Rule Seven

SNAPPING AND PASSING THE BALL

SECTION 1—The Scrimmage.

The action starts with the kick-off, but the tempo usually increases with the "scrimmage" that follows the kickoff. The scrimmage literally is the heart of the game—the means through which the power, the finesse and the deception of the game are set in motion and the defense thrown into gear. It starts with the teams facing each other across a narrow strip of No Man's Land about 11 inches wide. The snap of the ball sets in motion a play that may be a run, a pass or a kick.

The scrimmage play must start between the hash marks (inbound lines)—within the center-third of the field's width. It need not end there, but if it does not, the Referee must move the ball back into the area between the hash marks before the next play begins.

The Center, officially known as the snapper, may not move the ball or change his stance after he has taken his position for the snap. Nor may any of his teammates make any movement feigning the start of play. Players on defense need not remain stationary before the snap of the ball, but they may not touch the ball, cross or encroach on the neutral zone or make contact with an opponent. A substitute who is entering the game must be within 15 yards of the ball before it is snapped.

SECTION 2—Scrimmage Formation. At the snap of the ball, at least seven members of the offensive team must be on the line of scrimmage. Five of these players must wear numbers from 50 through 79. This permits the officials to quickly identify players who are NOT eligible to receive a forward pass and who, accordingly, are prohibited from going downfield before a pass is thrown.

Those players on the offensive team who are not required to be on the line of scrimmage when the ball is snapped must be at least one yard behind it, with this exception; One player, usually the quarterback who first receives the ball from center, may be less than one yard from the line of scrimmage at the time of the snap. It is legal, however, for the center to snap the ball directly to another back. And it is permissible for one offensive player to be in motion immediately before the snap, but the "man in motion" must run laterally or toward his own goal, not toward his opponents.

SECTION 3—Shift Plays. If the snap is preceded by a huddle or a shift (simultaneous movement of two or more players), all offensive players must come to an absolute stop and remain stationary for one full second before the ball is snapped.

An offensive player who is behind the scrimmage line may hand the ball forward to a teammate who also is behind the line.

SECTION 4—Backward Pass and Fumble. A ball carrier may hand or pass the ball backward at any time and a backward pass or fumble may be caught or recovered by any player. If caught in flight by an inbounds player, the ball continues in play, but if recovered after the ball hits the ground, only the offensive team may advance it.

A backward pass or fumble that goes out of bounds belongs to the team last in possession at the out-of-bounds spot.

SECTION 5—The Forward Pass. The offensive team may make one forward pass during each scrimmage down, but it must be thrown before the passer advances beyond the neutral zone. The defensive team may not throw a forward pass, nor may the offensive team intentionally ground a pass in an effort to avoid the risk of interception or to conserve time.

SECTION 6—Eligibility to Catch Pass. All defensive players are eligible to catch (intercept) a forward pass, but only six offensive players (including the passer) may do so. They are those wearing numbers other than 50 through 79, normally the two ends and four backs. However, when a defensive player touches a forward pass, all players become eligible.

Ineligible pass receivers (including numbers 50 through 79) may not advance beyond the neutral zone until the pass is thrown.

SECTION 7—Completed Pass. A forward pass is completed when the ball is caught by an eligible offensive player who is in bounds, and the ball continues in play. It also is completed when caught simultaneously by opposing players but, although the passing team is awarded the ball, it may not advance it.

SECTION 8—Incompleted Pass. A forward pass is incomplete when it strikes the ground or goes out of bounds. It also is incomplete if a receiver jumps to catch the pass and comes down with a foot on or outside a boundary line (sideline or endline) before one of his feet or his body touches in bounds. On an incomplete pass, possession remains with the passing team at the previous scrimmage spot.

SECTION 9—Pass Interference. Contact by an opponent which interferes with an eligible receiver (defensive players included) beyond the neutral zone, is pass interference. However, players are not guilty of interference when making a simultaneous and bona fide effort to reach the ball.

Pass interference by a defensive player gives the offensive team the ball and a first down at the spot of the foul (on the 1-yard line, if foul is in end zone). Offensive interference costs a down and 15 yards, if foul occurs in the field of play. If it occurs in the defensive team's end zone, it may be ruled a touch-back, thus loss of possession by the passing team.

Rule Eight

SCORING

SECTION 1—Value of Scores.

The game of football blends brain and brawn to a degree unknown in any other sport, and its offensive and defensive maneuvers have increased in complexity from season to season throughout the game's 101-year history. Yet its scoring values have remained remarkably simple. They are:

Touchdown	6 Points
Field Goal	3 Points
Safety (points awarded to opponents)	2 Points
Successful Try-for-Point(s) { by run or pass	2 Points
by kick	1 Point

That's all, except that a forfeited game (the rarest of occurrences in the case of football) is scored as 1-0 against the forfeiting team. A 1-0 score is possible in no other football situation.

SECTION 2—Touchdown. A touchdown, carrying a value of six points, is scored when a player is in legal possession of the ball when it—NOT the player—is on, above or beyond the opponents' goal line. If the ball carrier is thrown or falls on his opponents' 1-yard line and slides across the goal line, it is NOT a touchdown unless the ball's forward point was on or above the goal line at the moment his body hit the ground.

SECTION 3—Try-for-Point(s) After Touchdown. The Try-for-Point(s), also known as the conversion, is a “bonus” opportunity granted a team that has just scored a touchdown to add to its total by one or two points, while time is out. The attempt is a scrimmage play from the opponents' 3-yard line. A placekick or dropkick clearing the crossbar between the opponents' goal posts earns one extra point. Two points are added by a legally completed forward pass or a running play that advances to or beyond the opponents' goal line.

Following the Try-for-Point(s), play is resumed by a kickoff, with the option of kicking or receiving being exercised by the Field Captain of the team against which the touchdown was scored.

SECTION 4—Field Goal. The three points awarded for a successful field goal are earned by a placekick or a dropkick that clears the crossbar between the opponents' goal posts before it strikes the ground or a player of the kicking team. It is a scrimmage play and a field goal may not be scored on a kickoff.

A ball that clears the crossbar between the uprights, but is blown back over the crossbar, does not score a field goal.

As following a Try-for-Point(s), the Field Captain of the team scored against designates which team is to kickoff following a scoring field goal.

SECTION 5—Safety and Touchback. When the ball becomes dead in an end zone, whether out of bounds or in the possession of a defending player, it is ruled either a touchback (which scores no points) or a safety (two points). The determining factor is the impetus that sent the ball into the end zone.

If a team attacking a goal is responsible, it is a touchback and the defending team takes over the ball on its 20-yard line.

But if the ball becomes dead in an end zone as result of a kick, pass, snap, fumble or run (accidental or intentional) with the ball in possession of the team defending that goal, it is a safety, which scores two points for its opponents.

Following a safety, the defending team (having just yielded two points), must put the ball into play from its own 20-yard line by a free kick, which may be a punt, dropkick or placekick.

Rule Nine

CONDUCT OF PLAYERS AND OTHERS

SECTION 1—Limited Violence.

If you bruise easily, football probably is not your competitive sport. The game involves the hurtling together of human bodies, often weighing 250 pounds or more and moving at utmost speed. But this is not wanton violence. Unnecessary roughness, unfair tactics and unsportsmanlike conduct are severely penalized and specified protections are provided for situations in which players are unable to protect themselves adequately. All persons affiliated with the teams are subject to the rules, even if not involved in the game.

SECTION 2—Personal Fouls. A loss of 15 yards, plus disqualification of the offender in flagrant situations, is the penalty for these acts of unnecessary roughness identified as personal fouls:

- a. Kicking, kneeling or striking an opponent with a fist, extended forearm, elbow or locked hands.
- b. Striking an opponent's head, neck or face with the heel, back or side of the open hand.
- c. Tripping or clipping an opponent (except that clipping is not a foul within a specified, immediate area of the scrimmage line).
- d. Piling on, falling on or throwing the body on an opponent after the ball becomes dead.
- e. Tackling a ball carrier when he is clearly out of bounds or throwing a ball carrier to the ground after the ball becomes dead.
- f. Running into an opponent obviously out of the play.
- g. Hurdling, or grasping the face mask of an opponent.
- h. Using the helmet or head to maliciously butt an opponent.

SECTION 3—Roughing Kicker or Placekick Holder. The same stiff penalty protects the punter and kick holder from rough treatment as they concentrate on their demanding assignments. However, contact with the kicker is forgiven when a punt or place kick is blocked, since this is attacking the ball rather than the man.

SECTION 4—Interference Fouls. Other applications of the 15-yards, possible-disqualification penalty are for fouls that interfere with orderly game progress and administration:

- a. Interference with the ball or a player by a substitute or any personnel on the field illegally. (When a reasonably assured touchdown play is thus interfered with, the touchdown is awarded.)
- b. Use of abusive or insulting language to officials or players.
- c. Use of words or signals by the defense to disconcert opponents preparing to put the ball in play.
- d. Concealing the ball beneath clothing or substituting anything for the ball.
- e. Failure of a player to return the ball to an official immediately after a score.

SECTION 5—Blocking Yes, Holding No. One of the more frequently assessed penalties is the loss of 15 yards for "holding." This is because of the fine line between illegal holding and legal blocking. The latter is using the body to remove an opponent from the path of the play. It becomes holding when an offensive blocker uses a hand or forearm, unless the hand is kept in contact with the blocker's body and below the opponent's shoulder. It also is holding when an offensive player uses his arms to hook, lock, clamp, encircle or lift an opponent. The same restrictions apply to a defensive player only when he is not attempting to get to the ball or ball carrier. Blocking must be an individual effort, i.e., teammates may not grasp one another for interlocked blocking.

SECTION 6—Batting and Kicking. Unlike baseball, batting generally is frowned on in football. In this game, it means striking the ball with the hand or forearm, which is legal only while a forward pass or scrimmage kick is in flight. And even though the game is football, it is illegal to deliberately kick a free ball, forward pass or a ball being held for a placekick by an opponent.

Rule Ten

PENALTY ENFORCEMENT

SECTION 1—Referee Presides.

While all football officials are responsible for enforcing the rules, the Referee's role is the dominant one. Figuratively, he is the presiding judge and chief law enforcement officer. He has general supervision over the game and his decisions on matters not specifically assigned to other officials are final.

Before a penalty is enforced, the Referee explains the penalty options or alternatives to the Field Captain of the offended team. A penalty is completed only when it is accepted or declined, or when it is canceled because of offsetting fouls.

SECTION 2—Field Captain Accepts or Declines. The role of the Field Captain is unique in football, the one game in which the automatic assessment of a penalty against the opponents would be to the disadvantage of the offended team that has achieved its objective despite the foul.

A striking example is when a team has completed a touchdown play on which the defenders fouled. In such a situation, the Field Captain's choice is simplicity itself. He declines the penalty, since its assessment would erase the successful play. A more difficult decision would be whether to accept a 5-yard penalty against the opposition (without expending a down) or to decline and retain a 7-yard gain on the play (at cost of a down).

Any penalty may be accepted or declined by the offended team's Field Captain, but a disqualified player must leave the game in any case. If opponents are charged with two or more fouls on the same play, the Referee explains the alternative penalties to the Field Captain, who may then elect only one of them.

Usually no option exists when fouls are committed by both teams on the same play. Such offsetting fouls cancel each other and the down is replayed automatically. However, if the ball changes possession during such a play, the team last gaining possession may decline the offsetting fouls and retain possession, after the penalty for its own transgression is assessed.

SECTION 3—Enforcement Procedures. A Referee's lot is not an easy one, as attested by the complex enforcement procedures spelled out by this section of the Official Football Rules. For the rest of us, fortunately, awareness of these basic principles should be sufficient:

- a. No distance penalty may be more than half the distance to the goal, thus assuring that a score cannot be achieved by a penalty. For example, what would normally be a 15-yard penalty is assessed as only five yards when the enforcement spot is the offending team's 10-yard line, or only a half yard if enforced from the 1-yard line.
- b. If the defensive team fouls during a successful try-for-point(s), the offensive team's Field Captain may either (1) accept the point(s) scored, with the distance of penalty assessed against opponents immediately prior to the ensuing kickoff; or (2) choose to replay the try-for-point(s). The latter option might be exercised if the scoring team should decide to try for two points (from the 1½-yard line) instead of the one point it had made (from the 3-yard line).

SECTION 4—Summary of Penalties. The Official Football Rules book lists a total of 83 penalties (with some cross indexing), among which the most often encountered probably are:

LOSS OF 5 YARDS—Offside, illegal procedure, illegal motion, illegal shift, substitution infraction, delay of game and (incurring also loss of a down) intentionally grounded or illegal forward pass.

LOSS OF 15 YARDS—Personal foul, clipping, roughing the kicker or holder, unsportsmanlike conduct (chiefly non-contact fouls), illegal use of hands and arms, ineligible receiver downfield and (incurring also loss of a down) forward pass illegally touched and offensive forward pass interference (the penalty for defensive forward pass interference awards the ball to the offended team at the spot of the foul).

For the purpose of national championship competition, the NCAA's active institutional membership of 635 (of a total membership of 730) is divided into a University or National Collegiate Division (225) and a College Division (410).

National championship competition is offered College Division institutions in two team sports and seven individual sports. Regional competition is conducted in six sports including football.

In addition to the four regional football games listed above, two games (the Amos Alonzo Stagg and Knute Rockne Bowls) have been established for the smaller College Division members. These games will be played on dates and sites to be determined.

In those sports in which National College Division Championships are not conducted, all members are eligible to compete in the National Collegiate Championships.
